

An abstract painting of a landscape. It features a path or road that leads from the foreground into the distance. The path is rendered with dark, horizontal brushstrokes. On either side of the path, there are various shapes and colors representing trees and foliage. The colors are muted and earthy, including shades of brown, green, and blue. The overall style is impressionistic and textured, with visible brushwork throughout.

The Difference Heaven Makes Rehearing The Gospel As News:

The Difference Heaven Makes Christopher Morse, 2010-04-09 By focusing upon a rehearing of the Gospel news of heaven today the author invites readers to exercise a post modern permission to listen to this testimony without either the usual modernist earplugs or an uncritical post modern make believe Without attempting to retrace the history of images and interpretations of heaven Morse seeks rather to draw upon this background to get to the heart of the issue of modern eschatological and apocalyptic discussion by proposing in the foreground a thought experiment

The Reality of God and Historical Method Samuel V. Adams, 2015-11-09 Samuel Adams engages the classic problem of the relation between faith and history from the perspective of apocalyptic theology in critical dialogue with the work of N T Wright He argues that historical and theological scholars must take into consideration at a methodological level the reality of God that has invaded history in Jesus Christ human life Led into Mystery John de Gruchy, 2014-07-28 Led into Mystery is an unanticipated sequel to John de Gruchy's book Being Human: Confessions of a Christian Humanist. It was prompted by the untimely and tragic death of his eldest son Steve in February 2010 and the questions this posed about the meaning of life and death from the perspective of Christian faith.

Proclaiming the Parables Thomas G. Long, 2024-03-12 In Proclaiming the Parables noted preacher and scholar Thomas G. Long moves away from past treatment of the parables primarily as literary devices and moves toward an emphasis on their theological impact as pointers to the kingdom of God. While the parables are indeed significant poetic literary creations that have enchanted readers over the centuries, their main power, he claims, lies in their disclosure of the kingdom of God, which is not merely an idea nor even just a complex symbol with generative and centrifugal force but an event: the inbreaking of the life of God into human history and experience. Long sees parables not merely as creative figures of speech but as GPS devices taking hearers to those places where the event of God is happening all around us. This book provides two chapters for each synoptic Gospel. The first focuses on the Gospel as a whole and the parables place in it, and the second provides preachers and teachers with detailed exegetical and homiletical commentary for each major parable in that Gospel. Two introductory chapters additionally situate this book in the history and theology of the parables interpretation and address questions that preachers have about preaching the parables. Preachers who consult this volume will be informed about each major parable, guided through the controversies regarding interpretation, and stimulated to preach on the parable in fresh, faithful, and creative ways.

The Florida Agriculturist, 1898 Professor Schmoot Has Lost His Keys Again Christopher Morse, 2017-09-19 In a laugh-out-loud series of misfortunes, Professor Schmoot struggles to find his way as a New Testament professor in a seminary seeking to promote itself as spiritual but not religious. Unforgettable characters interact in a sequence of episodes in which postmodern aspirations are confounded by financial and academic deficits.
