The Differentiation Of Modernism Studies In German Literature Linguistics And Culture:

The Differentiation of Modernism Larson Powell, 2013 The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes the phenomenon of intermediality in German radio plays film music and electronic music of the late modernist period 1945 1980 After 1945 the purist medium specificity of high modernism increasingly yielded to the mixed forms of intermediality Theodor Adorno dubbed this development a Verfransung or fraying of boundaries between the arts The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes this phenomenon in German electronic media arts of the late modernist period 1945 80 in radio plays film music and electronic music The first part of the book begins with a chapter on Adorno's theory of radio as an instrument of democratization going on to analyze the relationship of the Hörspiel or radio play to electronic music In the second part on film music a chapter on Adorno and Eisler's Composing for the Film sets the parameters for chapters on the film Das Mächten Rosemarie 1957 and on the music films of Jean Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet The third part examines the music of Karlheinz Stockhausen and its relationship to radio abstract painting recording technology and theatrical happenings The book's central notion of the differentiation of culture suggests that late modernism unlike high modernism accepted the contingency of modern mass media driven society and sought to find new forms for it Larson Powell is Curator's Professor of Film Studies at University of Missouri Kansas City He is the author of The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Camden House 2008

Arno Schmidt's Zettel's Traum: An Analysis (Studies in German Literature, Linguistics, and Culture) Volker Max Langbehn, 2003 Arno Schmidt 1914 1979 is considered one of the most daring and influential writers of postwar Germany the Germanist Jeremy Adler has called him a giant of postwar German literature Schmidt was awarded the Fontane Prize in 1964 and the Goethe Prize in 1973 and his early fiction has been translated into English to high critical acclaim but he is not a well known figure in the English speaking world where his complex work remains at the margins of critical inquiry Volker Langbehn's book introduces Schmidt to the English speaking audience with primary emphasis on his most famous novel Zettel's Traum One reviewer called the book an elephantine monster because of its unconventional size folio format length 1334 pages and over 10 million characters and unique presentation of text in the form of notes typewritten pages parallel columns and collages The novel narrates the life of the main characters Daniel Pagenstecher Paul Jacobi and his wife Wilma and their teenage daughter Franziska In discussing the life and works of Edgar Allan Poe the four engage in the problems connected with a translation of Poe Langbehn's study investigates how literary language can mediate or account for the world of experiences and for concepts Schmidt's use of unconventional presentation formats challenges us to analyze how we think about reading and writing literary texts Instead of viewing such texts as a representation of reality Schmidt's novel destabilizes this unquestioned mode of representation posing a radical challenge to what contemporary literary criticism defines as literature No comprehensive study of Zettel's Traum exists in English Volker Langbehn is assistant professor of German at San Francisco State University

A Companion to Sound in German-speaking Cultures Rolf J. Goebel,2023 Explores sonic events and auditory experiences in German speaking contexts from the Middle Ages to the digital age opening up new understandings As a sub discipline of cultural studies sound studies is a firmly established field of inquiry examining how sonic events and auditory experiences unfold in culturally and historically contingent life situations Responding to new questions in sound studies in the context of German speaking cultures and incorporating up to date methodologies this Companion explores the significance of sound from the Middle Ages and the classical romantic period through high capitalist industrial modernity the Nazi period and the Holocaust and postwar Germany to the present digital age The volume examines how sonic events are represented in literary fiction radio productions cinema newsreels documentaries sound art museum exhibitions and other media drawing for this inquiry on philosophy aesthetics literary criticism musicology art theory and cultural studies Each essay is a case study of persons events and sonic visual or textual artifacts situating them in wider contexts of culture history and politics The volume not only revisits well known topics from new angles but seeks especially to explore neglected issues on the cultural periphery It assembles original essays by leaders in the field and emerging scholars from the United States and Europe Offering an advanced introduction to the topic the Companion is addressed to anyone interested in how the analysis of sound phenomena opens up new understandings of German speaking cultures American Book Publishing Record ,2004 Forms of Disruption Neil H. Donahue,1993 Ecocritical Theory Axel Goodbody,Kate Rigby,2011-09-13 One of the more frequently lodged serious and justifiable complaints about ecocritical work is that it is insufficiently theorized Ecocritical Theory puts such claims decisively to rest by offering readers a comprehensive collection of sophisticated but accessible essays that productively investigate the relationship between European theory and ecocritique With its international roster of contributors and subjects it also militates against the parochialism of ecocritics who work within the limited canon of the American West Bringing together approaches and orientations based on the work of European philosophers and cultural theorists this volume is designed to open new pathways for ecocritical theory and practice in the twenty first century

Utopia of the Romantics becomes the trace of specific political sexual and technological traumas The book s four chapters center on the representation of nature in German prose and especially poetry by Rainer Maria Rilke Gottfried Benn Bertolt Brecht and Alfred Döblin from the years 1900 to 1945 while making reference to other literatures as well Powell s term the Technological Unconscious refers to a point of intersection between psychoanalysis and social and scientific theories of modernism and also to the philosophical mediation between history and nature a motif important from Kant to Adorno Powell critiques the tendency toward jargon of an often merely rhetorical theory while continuing to develop the philosophical and conceptual inheritance of Continental traditions He analyzes in connection with the works treated the conceptions of subject and system in the theories of Adorno Luhmann and Lacan and their relation to their complement nature The Technological Unconscious is thus an important polemical intervention both in the debates over interdisciplinarity and in those between eclectic culturalist theories such as New Historicism and postcolonialism on the one hand and systems theory and psychoanalysis on the other Book Jacket Articulating Difference Sophie Salvo,2024-10-08 Enriches contemporary debates about gender and language by probing the histories of the philosophy and sciences of language Drawing on a wide range of texts from understudied ethnographic and scientific works to canonical literature and philosophy Sophie Salvo uncovers the prehistory of the inextricability of gender and language Taking German discourses on language as her focus she argues that we are not the inventors but rather the inheritors and adapters of the notion that gender and language are interrelated Particularly during the long nineteenth century ideas about sexual differences shaped how language was understood classified and analyzed As Salvo explains philosophers asserted the patriarchal origins of language linguists investigated women s languages and grammatical gender and literary Modernists imagined feminine sign systems and in doing so they not only deemed sex based divisions to be necessary categories of language but also produced a plethora of gendered tropes and fictions which they used both to support their claims and delimit their disciplines Articulating Difference charts new territory revealing how gendered conceptions of language make possible the misogynistic logic of exclusion that underlies arguments claiming for example that women cannot be great orators or writers While Salvo focuses on how male scholars aligned language study with masculinity she also uncovers how women responded highlighting the contributions of understudied nineteenth century works on language that women wrote even as they were excluded from academic opportunities Graduate Studies ,1993 Which Degree Guide ,2001 Which Degree Directory Series ,2000 Directory of American Scholars: Foreign languages, linguistics and philology ,1999 British Universities' Guide to Graduate Study ,1992 Habituation in German Modernism Meindert Peters,2024 Joins a growing body of scholarship dealing with the productive relationship between literature and cognitive studies while also positing a new theory of modernism How do we habituate ourselves to environments that are not yet or no longer familiar What is at stake in adapting our behavior to new or changed situations The present study explores these questions by bringing German literature and thought of the early twentieth century a time of immense social and material change in Europe into dialogue with contemporary research in embodied cognition In six close readings of texts by Vicki Baum Walter Benjamin Alfred D oblin Martin Heidegger Georg Kaiser and Rainer Maria Rilke it brings into relief German modernism s concerns over how we adapt our behavior to environments that are new changed and or changing Rather than emphasizing the alienation and isolation that these texts investigate regarding the modern urban experience as much of the research on literary modernism has traditionally done Meindert Peters s book draws out the more dynamic moments of mastery responsiveness and cooperation that underpin habituation Moreover it extends these questions of habituation to the function of literature itself by showing how modernist forms invite engagement and participation Habituation in German Modernism not only joins a growing body of scholarship dealing with the productive relationship between literature and cognitive studies but also posits a new theory of modernism
