The Dilemma Of Love Healing Co Dependent Relationships At Different Stages:

The Dilemma of Love Susan Cooley Ricketson, 1989      The Self on the Shelf Gary Greenberg, 1994-08-04 The Self on the Shelf examines the cultural and philosophical determinants of popular recovery books Greenberg argues that this literature can be read as documents of the prevailing understanding of the self in American society The construction of the self promoted by recovery literature is seen as a nihilistic one insofar as it denies the significance of what continental philosophy calls the Other In this sense the self help books are correct in their assertion that we have lost sight of how to love but their proposed solution shows up as a recapitulation and strengthening of the conditions that gave rise to this situation in the first place Greenberg's critique provides a commentary on the difficulties that face our culture in achieving any sense of meaningful community and on the way that this problem surfaces in a highly popular discourse      Codependents' Guide to the Twelve Steps Melody Beattie, 1992-04-09 Explains how recovery programs work and how to apply the Twelve Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous Offers specific exercises and activities for use by individuals and in group settings      Heroine Abuse Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2015-10-15 Fyodor Dostoevsky's first novel Netochka Nezvanova written in 1849 remains the least studied and understood of the writer's long fiction but it was a seedbed for many topics and themes that became hallmarks of his major works Specifically Netochka Nezvanova was the first in Dostoevsky's corpus to focus on the psychology of children and the first to feature a woman in a leading and narrative role It was also the first work in Russian literature to deal with problems of the family In Heroine Abuse Thomas Marullo contends that Netochka Nezvanova also provides a striking example of what psychologists today call codependency the ways often deviant and destructive in which individuals bond with people places and things as well as with images and ideas to cope with the vicissitudes of life Marullo shows how at age twenty eight Dostoevsky intuited and illustrated the workings of relationship addiction almost a century and a half before it became the scholarly focus of practitioners of mental health The moral monsters infernal women children adults and adult children who populate Netochka Nezvanova seek codependence in people places and things and in images ideas and ideals to satiate cravings for love dominance and control as well as to indulge in narcissism sexual perversion and other aberrant or alternative behaviors Indeed in no other work would Dostoevsky examine such phenomena as pedophilia and lesbianism with such abandon Racing from tie to tie bond to bond and caught in a debilitating loop that they claim to detest but sadomasochistically enjoy the characters in Netochka Nezvanova wreak havoc on themselves and the world They do so moreover with impunity their addictions moving them from momentary exultation as self styled extraordinary men and women through prolonged darkness and despair and once again to old and new addictions for physical and emotional release Readers of Heroine Abuse will see Netochka Nezvanova as a timeless model in depicting codependency in the world of the twenty first century as it did in St Petersburg in 1849 Marullo's original work will appeal to scholars and students of Russian and comparative fiction to doctors psychologists and therapists to laymen and women interested in relationship addiction and finally to codependents and relationship addicts of all types      Challenging Codependency Marguerite Babcock, M. Christine McKay, 1995 In the field of addiction research and counselling there has been an increasing investment in the theory of codependency a theory that holds women partly responsible for perpetuating the alcoholism and addiction of their male partners This is the first anthology of feminist essays that presents a cogent critique of this theory The unifying feature of the eighteen essays collected here is the revelation that solid evidence contradicts rather than supports the theory of codependency Its assumptions are found to be unsubstantiated in theory and practice The contributors to the volume explore the history of codependency theory and look at reasons for its growing popularity in medical model politics A central theme emerges that codependency theory is essentially misogynist in nature the result of a male backlash against feminism The collection leaves no doubt that this backlash is effective These essays reveal the many ways that codependency therapy promotes advice and counselling that is damaging and ultimately fails women seeking help for their distress This anthology aimed at professionals as well as readers at large reveals a remarkable body of literature questioning the validity of popular addictions philosophy about women and the quality of the scholarship that supports those theories      Transformation and Recovery Alex G. Brumbaugh, 1994 The first book available describing the application of acupuncture to the treatment of substance abuse Three years in the making this important new book examines the reasons why acupuncture is so successful as an adjunct in the treatment of substance abuse in a variety of conventional drug treatment an analysis of conventional chemical dependency treatment models an extensive appendix including a thorough summary of all acupuncture research relevant to chemical dependency treatment A must for administrators clinicians alike Robert T Olander Director of Chemical Health Hennepin County Minnesota Sophisticated comprehensive practical Sensitive to the whole range of subtlety in the problem of addiction Michael Smith MD Director of Substance Abuse Lincoln Hospital New York founder of the National Acupuncture Detoxification Association In TRANSFORMATION RECOVERY Alex Brumbaugh has unified the addiction field drawing together a disparity of information from chemical dependency Chinese medicine rooting it in history Belle Muschinske Ph D New Mexico Department of Corrections 39 00 plus shipping from Stillpoint Press 133 E De La Guerra Ste 362 Santa Barbara CA 93101 To order 800 500 7577      The Heroic Path Angela Passidomo Trafford, 1993      Psychiatry, 1990      Living on the Border of Disorder Cherry Boone O'Neill, Dan O'Neill, 1992 Cherry Boone O'Neill's bestselling book Starving for Attention told of her eating disorder and subsequent recovery Drawing from their experiences and extensive research the O'Neills now describe the nature of addictions and tell how to effectively relate to and help the addictive person      Books in Print, 1994      The Dilemma of Love Susan Cooley Ricketson, 2001-01      Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001      The Dumbo Dilemma Dianne D.
