The Unfinished Business of

1776 Thomas Richards Jr.,2026-02-03 A clarion call for taking back the American Revolution from the far right published for the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence Who gets to claim the legacy of the American Revolution and the mantle of patriotism that goes along with it In a sharp irreverent deeply informed account of the nation s founding moment and its enduring legacies historian Thomas Richards Jr invites us to see the Revolution not just as a one time fight for political freedom from Britain but as an ongoing struggle for equality justice and social and political independence for all Americans A riveting work of narrative history The Unfinished Business of 1776 shows that the Revolutionary struggle did not end in 1788 when the Constitution was ratified Across nine dramatic chapters Richards introduces readers to the vividly drawn characters who kept the Revolution alive for the next century and beyond including the women s rights advocate Judith Sargent Murray the enslaved rebel Gabriel the economic reformer Solomon Sharp and the religious visionary Joseph Smith each pushing for freedoms that extended well beyond the traditional narrative of the Revolution and each revealing how the unfinished work of 1776 fueled demands for economic social and legal equality that lasted well beyond the Revolution itself A myth busting book about the history we think we know The Unfinished Business of 1776 is the perfect antidote to jingoistic celebrations of America offering an inclusive vision of our common past El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003
