The Crisis Of Our Time:

The Financial Crisis of Our Time Robert W. Kolb, 2011-01-28 In 2006 residential real estate prices peaked and started to fall then threatened the world's financial institutions in 2007 and confronted the global economy with disaster in 2008 In the past few years millions of people have lost very substantial portions of their wealth And while the markets have rebounded considerably they are still far from a full recovery Now professional economists policy experts public intellectuals and the public at large are all struggling to understand the crisis that has engulfed us In The Financial Crisis of Our Time Robert W Kolb provides an essential comprehensive review of the context within which these events unfolded arguing that while the crisis had no single cause housing finance played a central role and that to understand what happened one must comprehend the mechanism by which the housing industry came into crisis Kolb offers a history of the housing finance system as it developed throughout the twentieth century and especially in the period from 1990 to 2006 showing how the originate to distribute model of mortgage financing presented market participants with a clockwork of perverse incentives In this system various participants simply by pursuing their narrow personal interests participated in an elaborate mechanism that led to disaster The book then gives a narrative of the crisis as it developed and analyzes all of the participants in the housing market from the home buyers to investors in collateralized debt obligations CDOs At each step the book explains in a nontechnical manner the essential relationships among the market participants and zeroes in on the incentives facing each party The book also includes an extensive glossary and a detailed authoritative timeline of the subprime financial crisis Offering a unique look at the participants and incentives within the housing finance industry and its role in the biggest financial catastrophe in recent history Robert W Kolb provides one of the most comprehensive and illuminating accounts of the events that will be studied for decades to come as the financial crisis of our time The Crisis of Our Time David B. King, 1988

Mental Hygiene and the Moral Crisis of Our Time Eduard Lindeman, 1956 The Crisis of Our Time John Carvalho, 2014-07-15 Dr John Carvalho former Harvard academician and winner of the United States National Research Service Award is no stranger to the word crisis As a scientist scholar and statesman he has spent decades working on the front lines of biomedical and theoretical exploration global health and the worldwide human rights movement The Crisis of Our Time is the astonishing partial memoir and discourse regarding his life's career and philosophy concerning the planet's most pressing problems Written in a way accessible to everyone Carvalho beginning with his passionate poetic and provocative first chapter challenges us to discover that the disastrous external crises of our lives emanate from the unity of our conscious and subconscious experiences Indeed the great troubles afflicting humanity war infectious disease economic recession terrorism family discord psychological trauma human rights violations dilemmas that appear unsolvable actually originate when without truthful self reflection we glorify mediocrity rather than strive to excel Employing cutting edge scientific information keen historical insight extensive cultural experience and profound philosophical analysis Carvalho dissects our crises to elucidate why they perpetuate In so doing he introduces his theory of causal circular systems to reveal how causes feed off and exacerbate effects which in turn reinforce those same causes Furthering his views he explores global health the example par excellence as well as economics political history planetary climate change and the most central crisis of all Being or Nothingness the fears of the Self the dread of our mortality Ultimately this short but eye opening book creates epic meaning while using an artistic literary style that is virtually unseen in nonfiction Anyone who genuinely seeks excellence over mediocrity truth over falsity meaning over purposelessness and resolution over despair should read Crisis

Morgan, Wilhelm Roepke, 2017-09-22 Roepke's The Social Crisis of Our Time is a series of blasts against the malformations of economics the Nazi and Communist forms of collectivism both come in for severe criticism Roepke shows the process by which the Western liberal tradition itself makes possible these rebellions against open economic systems The drive toward social welfare full employment policies and the state management of fiscal fluctuations all lead away from free societies no less than market economies COVID-19 and the Structural Crises of Our Time Lim Mah-Hui, Michael Heng Siam-Heng, 2021-11-22 We live in paradoxical times Traditionally the West has led the world in theory and practice Yet recent developments from COVID 19 to the storming of the US Capitol show how lost the West has become This loss of direction has deep roots In their usual thoughtful and incisive fashion Lim Mah Hui and Michael Heng Siam Heng draw out the deeper origins of our current crises and show us a new way forward A must read for anyone who wants to understand our strange times Kishore Mahbubani founding Dean of the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy National University of Singapore is the author of Has China Won A powerful and compelling critique of neoliberal globalization and its potentially devastating but long underestimated consequences for financial stability the environment social equity and democracy COVID 19 has laid bare these dysfunctions and stresses But this is not a pessimistic book The authors argue correctly that we may be on the cusp of another Great Transformation The choices we make today to make markets more resilient improve social protection and preserve our freedoms could lay the foundations for a sustainable globalization that works for future generations Donald Low Professor of Practice in Public Policy and Director of the Institute for Emerging Market Studies Hong Kong University of Science and Technology This fascinating book highlights the interplay between financial and health crises that the COVID 19 pandemic exposed Financialized capitalism is bad for the planet bad for human health and creates more unequal and insecure societies The authors make a strong and convincing case for re embedding markets into society and finance into the real economy Jayati Ghosh Professor of Economics University of Massachusetts at Amherst USA Lim and Heng s ambitious volume argues that 2020 was the year of the global perfect storm of multiple crises with the COVID 19 pandemic exacerbating financial economic socio political and environmental breakdowns They extend Karl Polanyi s original insights to appeal for a sustainable global New Deal While the reader may not agree with all their theses the scope of their coverage and ambition will set the stage for debates over the annus horribilis Jomo K S Founding chair IDEAS www.networkideas former United Nations Assistant Secretary General This book provides plenty of food for thought for many pondering if the COVID 19 crisis could lead to a major transformation of the global economic system shaped by unfettered market forces and policies of governments in their service Yilmaz Akyuz former Director UNCTAD Geneva
