The Crowd You're In With:

The Crowd You're In With Rebecca Gilman, 2009-08-18 The Crowd You're In With is the fifth play by award winning American playwright Rebecca Gilman. In it a Fourth of July backyard barbecue is the setting for a comic thought provoking ultimately disquieting exploration of the question of whether to have children. Melinda and Jasper the hosts are deeply divided by the issue. Tom and Karen their landlords decided long ago to remain childless. Windsong and her husband Dan are expecting a baby. As the play progresses the motivations of these characters reveal themselves as ever more complex. Even as the characters often speak in very practical terms about their decisions Gilman never loses sight of the mystery underlying a life shaping decision guided by both rational thought and biological imperative which ultimately speaks to the even larger question of free will and determinism faced by every person. The Chicago based Gilman has won numerous awards including the Evening Standard Award for Most Promising Playwright and the Scott McPherson Award. Her play The Glory of Living was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize.
