The Dark Valley Piers Brendon, 2002-01-08 The 1930s were perhaps the seminal decade in twentieth century history a dark time of global depression that displaced millions paralyzed the liberal democracies gave rise to totalitarian regimes and ultimately led to the Second World War In this sweeping history Piers Brendon brings the tragic dismal days of the 1930s to life From Stalinist pogroms to New Deal programs Brendon re creates the full scope of a slow international descent towards war Offering perfect sketches of the players riveting descriptions of major events and crises and telling details from everyday life he offers both a grand rousing narrative and an intimate portrait of an era that make sense out of the fascinating complicated and profoundly influential years of the 1930s French Cinema and the Great War Marcelline Block, Barry Nevin, 2016-02-04 Even a century after its conclusion the devastation of the Great War still echoes in the work of artists who try to make sense of the political moral ideological and economic changes and challenges it spawned France the military major power of the Western Front carries the legacy of battles on its own soil and countless French lives lost defending the nation from the Central Powers It is no surprise that the impact of the First World War can still be seen in French films into the present day French Cinema and the Great War Remembrance and Representation provides the first book length study of World War I as it is featured in French cinema from the silent era to contemporary films Presented in three thematic sections Recording and Remembering the Great War Women at the Front and Interrogating Commemoration the essays in this volume explore the ways in which French film contributes to the restoration and modification of memories of the war Films such as La Grande Illusion King of Hearts A Very Long Engagement and Joyeux Noel are among those discussed in the volume s examination of the various ways in which film mediates personal and collective memories of this critical historical event This volume will be an invaluable resource not only to those interested in French Cinema or the cinema of the Great War but also to those interested in the impacts of war more generally on the cultural output of nations torn by the violence death and destruction of military conflict Crossroads and Cultures, Volume C: Since 1750 Bonnie G. During the Phony War Nick Smart,2003-02-28 The so called Phony War from September 1939 to May 1940 occupies a peculiar yet distinct place in popular memory All the sensations of war except the fighting were present yet instead of massed air attacks and great land battles very little happened The British government was said to be complacent and the people downright bored Then France fell to German attack and the small British army was evacuated minus its equipment from Dunkirk Reaction to this major strategic catastrophe was naturally to blame the men deemed guilty for bringing the nation to the verge of humiliating defeat In sharp contrast to previous studies Smart argues that there was more to the phony war than governmental complacency that the period was more than a foolish or frivolous ante chamber to a later more heroic phase The extent to which the guilty men verdict on the first nine months of Britain s Second World War has stuck remains surprising The notion that the phony war was a necessary indeed over determined prelude to catastrophe has become cemented over time Examining the workings of the Anglo French leadership during this period Smart picks this thesis apart and argues that disaster was not necessarily still less inevitably just around the corner He concludes that Anglo French decision making during this time was basically sound that the soldiers were well equipped and in good heart and that there was no malaise eating away at the entente This study offers a challenging reappraisal of the phony war from a British perspective Michigan Law Review ,2000 World Economics ,2006 Germany Calling Mary Kenny,2008 This is a biography of William Joyce also known as Lord Haw Haw It looks closely at his life from his teenage dalliance with fascism in the 1920s right up until his execution in 1946 Stéphane Grappelli Paul Balmer,2003 Using personal correspondence and interviewing key family and friends from the Grappelli Foundation in Paris close friend Paul Balmer tells the fascinating story of the world s premier jazz violinist Globalisation, Development and Transition Brian Snowdon,2007 Provides a comprehensive survey of economic issues that have helped shape the modern world This book includes discussions of the research findings in international economic development literature and scrutinizes some of the debates in contemporary economics The Library of Congress World War II Companion Margaret E. Wagner,2007 From the Library of Congress and Pulitzer Prize winning historian Kennedy comes this lavishly illustrated fascinating collection of essential information on World War II 200 b w photos and maps Modern Macroeconomics Brian Snowdon,Howard R. Vane,2005 Erudite accessible and lucidly written this book is both a stimulating introduction and excellent guide to the controversies and diversity of modern macroeconomic debates It will prove invaluable for students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses who want to understand as well as simply learn about macroeconomics Grasping for the Wind John W. Whitehead,2001 Whitehead applies his razor sharp thinking to the question How did our culture get into the dismal moral and cultural state it is in today He provides a fascinating sketch of 20th century culture clearly showing how the artists and culture makers influenced the philosophical and moral climate of the world today Skillfully synthesizing major philosophical movements of the century he places cultural heroes into a larger context of truth and morality Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2001
