The Dream And The Text The Dream And The Text:

The Dream and the Text Carol Schreier Rupprecht, 1993-01-01 This book partakes of a long tradition of dream interpretation but at the same time is unique in its cross cultural and interdisciplinary methods and in its mix of theoretical and analytical approaches It includes a great chronological and geographical range from ancient Sumeria to eighteenth century China medieval Hispanic dream poetry to Italian Renaissance dream theory Shakespeare to Nerval and from Dostoevsky through Emily Bront to Henry James Rupprecht also incorporates various critical orientations including archetypal comparative feminist historicist linguistic postmodern psychoanalytic religious reader response and self psychology

The Politics of the Dreamscape Seth Rogoff, 2021-08-25 This book traces the intersection of dreams and power in order to analyze the complex ways representations of dreams and paradigms of dream interpretation reinforce and challenge authoritarian hierarchical structures The book puts forward the concept of the dreamscape as a pre representational space that contains anarchistic attributes including its instability or chaotic nature and the lack of a stable or core selfhood and identity in its subjects The book situates this concept of the dreamscape through an analysis of the Daoist notions of the transformation of things and hundun chaos and the biblical concept of tehom the deep Using this conceptual framework this book analyzes paradigmatic moments of dream interpretation along a spectrum from radical anarchist assertions of the primal dreamscape to authoritarian dream texts that seek to reify identity define and establish hierarchy and support coercive relationships between unequal subjects The book's key figures include William Blake Robert Frost Jacob and Joseph from Genesis Sigmund Freud Carl Jung Jean Rhys Franz Kafka and the neurobiologist J Allan Hobson

Streams of Consciousness Christopher Bollas, 2024-09-26 In Christopher Bollas Streams of Consciousness a wide spectrum of theory and practice are explored sometimes appearing in simple fragments sometimes via complex lines of thinking that are developed in detail over time As Bollas revisits the received truths and dogmas of his profession including his own prejudices he demonstrates the value of open intelligent uncertainty Interspersed with clinical preoccupations which highlight the richness as well as the bewildering complexity of psychoanalysis we find other ideas that reflect his early life as political activist literature professor and cultural critic Throughout the notebooks are enriched by references to the work of numerous writers in many fields who have influenced his thinking This work is essential reading for all with an interest in psychoanalysis which will enrich both academic study and clinical practice

New Directions in Dream Interpretation Gayle M. V. Delaney, 1993-01-01 A menu of seven approaches to dream interpretation as practiced by psychiatrists and psychologists emphasizing the practical aspects of actually doing it rather than the theory Each of the contributors has used the system they describe for at least two decades and includes case studies and transcripts of therapy sessions A basic text for mental health students and professionals but also accessible to general readers No index Paper edition unseen 18 95

Research on discourse or text processing has only recently come into its own. It builds on the work of text analysis which has a long and distinguished history but modern developments in psychology e.g. memory research, artificial intelligence, linguistics and philosophy have contributed to this emergence in the last decade as a lively and promising research area. This book contains 46 selected and edited contributions from the International Symposium held in Fribourg in 1981 and represents a truly international overview of the developments in research on written and oral discourse. The contributions have been grouped according to problem area and not according to methodology with the intention of focusing on the important issues in the field of discourse processing and of showing how diverse approaches contribute to a better understanding of the problems involved. The main themes are text structure, coherence, inference, memory processes, attention and control, goal perspectives and educational implications.

Historical Texts Arno Poebel, 1914 Elizabethan Lyrics from the Original Texts Norman Ault, 1928 Journal of Education and School World, 1887 Collected papers Sigmund Freud, 1925 Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, 1988. Provides within the covers of a single book a selection of important and representative work from all the major theoretical schools or tendencies in contemporary criticism and places them before the reader in two alternative orders: one historical, the other thematic.

The Interpretation of Dreams Sigmund Freud, Abraham Arden Brill, 1915 The Journal of Education, 1887 Lacan and the Subject of Law David Stanley Caudill, 1997. Application of Lacan's theory to some concrete legal problems follows in the second part of the book with a series of studies including child abuse, hysteria, land use, debates, the critique of legal ideology and religion in law and politics.

The Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha of the Old Testament, in English, 1913 The Juvenile Instructor, 1913 Once a Week Eneas Sweetland Dallas, 1870 Psycho-analysis and Its Place in Life M. K. Bradby, 1920 The Psychology of Day-dreams J. Varendonck, 1921 The Works of Edgar Allan Poe Edgar Allan Poe, 1927 Literature and Ideology Harry Raphael Garvin, James M. Heath, 1982. The essays in this critical anthology explore the relation of artists, readers and critics to their conscious ideological concerns and to ideological forces of which they are not fully aware. A special emphasis is placed on the particular problems faced by women as they write, read and act in an ideological context largely determined by men. Illustrated.
