encounters Cheng views everyday landscapes as crucial terrains through which racial hierarchies are learned instantiated and transformed She terms the process regional racial formation through which locally accepted racial orders and hierarchies complicate and often challenge prevailing notions of race There is a place specific state of mind here Cheng finds Understanding the processes of racial formation in the San Gabriel Valley in the contemporary moment is important in itself but also has larger value as a model for considering the spatial dimensions of racial formation and the significant demographic shifts taking place across the national landscape Go for the Eagle Nancy Hoch,Dean Hoch,1987
