The Culture Of Sectarianism Community History And Violence In Nineteenth Century Ottoman Lebanon:

The Culture of Sectarianism Ussama Makdisi,2000-07-03 A fresh interpretation of the development of sectarian identities and communal violence in Lebanon from the 1840s to the 1860s challenging those who have viewed sectarian violence as an Islamic reaction against westernization or as the product of social and economic inequities among religious groups The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates Cyrus Schayegh,Andrew Arsan,2015-06-05 The Routledge Handbook of the History of the Middle East Mandates provides an overview of the social political economic and cultural histories of the Middle East in the decades between the end of the First World War and the late 1940s when Britain and France abandoned their Mandates It also situates the history of the Mandates in their wider imperial international and global contexts incorporating them into broader narratives of the interwar decades In 27 thematically organised chapters the volume looks at various aspects of the Mandates such as The impact of the First World War and the development of a new state system The impact of the League of Nations and international governance Differing historical perspectives on the impact of the Mandates system Techniques and practices of government The political social economic and cultural experiences of the people living in and connected to the Mandates This book provides the reader with a guide to both the history of the Middle East Mandates and their complex relation with the broader structures of imperial and international life It will be a valuable resource for all scholars of this period of Middle Eastern and world history

Untold Histories of the Middle East Amy Singer,Christoph Neumann,Selcuk Aksin Somel,2010-07-28 This book examines the historiography of the Middle East and the consequent silences or omissions It provides a collection of important histories from the modern era particularly relating to the break up of the Ottoman Empire to give a fuller account of the society culture and politics of the period

The Medicalization of Sovereignty

Robert Ian Blecher,2002 Good Fences, Bad Neighbors Boaz Atzili,2012-02 Border fixity the proscription of foreign conquest and the annexation of homeland territory has since World War II become a powerful norm in world politics This development has been said to increase stability and peace in international relations Yet in a world in which it is unacceptable to challenge international borders by force sociopolitically weak states remain a significant source of widespread conflict war and instability In this book Boaz Atzili argues that the process of state building has long been influenced by external territorial pressures and competition with the absence of border fixity contributing to the evolution of strong states and its presence to the survival of weak ones What results from this norm he argues are conditions that make internal conflict and the spillover of interstate war more likely Using a comparison of historical and contemporary case studies Atzili sheds light on the relationship between state weakness and conflict His argument that under some circumstances an international norm that was established to preserve the peace may actually create conditions that are ripe for war is sure to generate debate and shed light on the dynamics of continuing conflict in the twenty first century Institutionalizing Sectarianism Max David Weiss,2007 Christian-Muslim Relations in Syria Andrew W. H. Ashdown,2020-11-25 Offering an authoritative study of the plural religious landscape in modern Syria and of the diverse Christian and Muslim communities that have cohabited the country for centuries this volume considers a wide range of cultural religious and political issues that have impacted the interreligious dynamic putting them in their local and wider context Combining fieldwork undertaken within government held areas during the Syrian conflict with critical historical and Christian theological reflection this research makes a significant contribution to understanding Syria s diverse religious landscape and the multi layered expressions of Christian Muslim relations It discusses the concept of sectarianism and how communal dynamics are crucial to understanding Syrian society The complex wider issues that underlie the relationship are examined including the roles of culture and religious leadership and it questions whether the analytical concept of sectarianism is adequate to describe the complex communal frameworks in the Middle Eastern context Finally the study examines the contributions of contemporary Eastern Christian leaders to interreligious discourse concluding that the theology and spirituality of Eastern Christianity inhabiting the same cultural environment as Islam is uniquely placed to play a major role in interreligious dialogue and in peace making The book offers an original contribution to knowledge and understanding of the changing Christian Muslim dynamic in Syria and the region It should be a key resource to students scholars and readers interested in religion current affairs and the Middle East The Middle East and North Africa 2004 ,2003-10-30 Now in its 50th edition this title continues to provide the most up to date geo political and economic information for this important world area Covers the Middle East and North Africa from Algeria to Yemen Offers quick access to a wide range of data Accurately and impartially records the latest political and economic developments Provides comprehensive data on all major organizations in the region General Survey Introductory essays covering topics relating to the region as a whole including Arab Israeli Relations 1967 2003 The Jerusalem Issue Documents on Palestine The Removal of Saddam Hussain and the Deconstruction of Iraq Natural Gas in the Middle East and North Africa Oil in the Middle East and North Africa and Islamic Banking and Finance Country Surveys Individual chapters on each country containing articles on geography recent history and economy an economic and demographic survey using all the latest available statistics on population agriculture industry finance trade transport tourism and education directory sections with names addresses and contact numbers covering the constitution government legislature judiciary political organizations diplomatic representation religious groups the media finance trade and industry including petroleum and tourism Regional Information Includes all major international organizations active in the region their aims activities publications and principal personnel Research Institutes specializing in the region Bibliographies of books and periodicals covering the Middle East and North Africa A Critical Political Economy of the Middle East and North Africa Joel Beinin,Bassam Haddad,Sherene Seikaly,2020-12-22 This book offers the first critical engagement with the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa Challenging conventional wisdom on the origins and contemporary dynamics of capitalism in the region these cutting edge essays demonstrate how critical political economy can illuminate both historical and contemporary dynamics of the region and contribute to wider political economy debates from the vantage point of the Middle East Leading scholars representing several disciplines contribute both thematic and country specific analyses Their writings critically examine major issues in political economy notably the mutual constitution of states markets and classes the co constitution of class race gender and other forms of identity varying modes of capital accumulation and the legal political and cultural forms of their regulation relations among local national and global forms of capital class and culture technopolitics the role of war in the constitution of states and classes and practices and cultures of domination and resistance Visit politicaleconomyproject.org for additional media and learning resources

Believers in the Battlespace Peter Harvey Denton,2011 Beginning with the idea that the battlefield has irrevocably become the battlespace this book explores the relation between religion and modern warfare in a variety of historical and contemporary contexts Solely blaming religion for creating conflict does not survive contact with the evidence Religious factors are at least equal to social cultural and psychological ones in understanding the sources of conflict and the motivations of the combatants

A History of Modern Lebanon Fawwaz Traboulsi,2007-01-20 A stunning history of Lebanon over five centuries Skillfully weaving together social political cultural and economic history this deeply informed and penetrating study provides a rich understanding of the vibrant tragic but ever hopeful Lebanon

Sectarianism and Intercommunal Nation-building in Lebanon Hanna Ziadeh,2006 Sectarian conflict foreign interventions and a constant search for inter communal compromise have been dominant themes in Lebanese history This book draws together for the first time the entire corpus of national pacts and constitutional texts which have demarcated the major ruptures of Lebanese history In his introduction Hanna Ziadeh explains how a constant state of communal tension regularly led to sectarian conflict

The Middle East: A History William Ochsenwald,Sydney Nettleton Fisher,2010-01-06 Praised for its straightforward and accessible style this text provides a general introduction to the chief elements in Middle Eastern history allowing readers to proceed into more specialized topics and themes with a solid understanding of the most current scholarship in the field

The Empire in the City Jens Hanssen,Thomas Philipp,Stefan Weber,2002 The Empire in the city deals with the many aspects of change of urban societies in the Arab provinces of the Ottoman Empire during the period of reforms in the 19th and early 20th centuries During this period of normative and centralizing state reforms and increasing international exchange local and global dynamics led to profound social changes This book therefore focuses on the converging trends of social and architectural interaction Cities are heterogeneous structures of social organization Thousands of men and women act daily in this complex system and leave their mark on the many layers the city s appearance In this sense cities provide a rich source for studies on social transformation The contributions deal with various aspects of provincial capitals and show how at different levels society architecture urban structures administration institutions etc late Ottoman times were far from being a period of irreversible decline in Arab provincial capitals They turn out to be times of vibrant intellectual activity intense innovation and conscious city planning Direct European influence played only a very limited part Much of the impetus for change and transformation came from Istanbul or from the evolving local bourgeoisie This book tries to bring back the role of local societies into the historiography of the Arab Provinces of the Ottoman Empire Cover Ottoman Brothers Michelle Campos,2011 Ottoman Brothers explores Ottoman collective identity tracing how Muslims Christians and Jews became imperial citizens together in Palestine following the 1908 revolution 2008, ۲۰۰۸، Turkish Studies Association Bulletin Turkish Studies Association,2000
