The Deity of Christ John MacArthur, 2017-01-03 Almost two Millennia ago Jesus asked his disciples Who do you say that I am and people have been asking the question ever since Many answering the question today have a decidedly different view than Peter offered in his faithful response In the early days of the church Gnostics balked at Jesus humanity Today it's his divine nature that's under attack It seems almost monthly that new bestselling books appear detailing how alternative gospels portray an earthly Jesus devoid of divinity The Deity of Christ by John F MacArthur is a biblical defense of Jesus deity and a clarion call for believers to rise up and defend this core doctrine Both new and seasoned Christians will benefit from MacArthur's clear take on the relevant Bible passages They will come away with rock solid assurance that Jesus was indeed the unique son of God and a deeper more profound appreciation of Christ's love for them

Theology for the Community of God Stanley J. Grenz, 2000-01-31 This proven systematic theology represents the very best in evangelical theology Stanley Grenz presents the traditional themes of Christian doctrine God humankind Christ the Holy Spirit the church and the last things all within an emphasis on God's central program for creation namely the establishment of community Masterfully blending biblical historical and contemporary concerns Grenz's respected work provides a coherent vision of the faith that is both intellectually satisfying and expressible in Christian living Available for the first time in paperback      Community of the Cross Craig D. Atwood, 2010-11-01 Bethlehem Pennsylvania was a unique colonial town It was the first permanent outpost of the Moravians in North America and served as the headquarters for their extensive missionary efforts It was also one of the most successful communal societies in American history Bethlehem was founded as a congregation of the cross where all aspects of personal and social life were subordinated to the religious ideal of the community In Community of the Cross Craig D Atwood offers a convincing portrait of Bethlehem and its religion Visitors to Bethlehem such as Benjamin Franklin remarked on the orderly and peaceful nature of life in the community its impressive architecture and its high culture However many non Moravians were embarrassed or even offended by the social and devotional life of the Moravians The adoration of the crucified Jesus especially his wounds was the focus of intense devotion for adults and children alike Moravians worshiped the Holy Spirit as Mother and they made the mystical marriage to Christ central to their marital intimacy Everything even family life was to be a form of worship Atwood reveals the deep connection between life in Bethlehem and the religious symbolism of controversial German theologian Nicholas von Zinzendorf whose provocative and erotic adoration of the wounds of Jesus was an essential part of private and communal life Using the theories of Ren Girard Mary Douglas and Victor Turner Atwood shows that it was the Moravians liturgy and devotion that united the community and inspired both its unique social structure and its missionary efforts      The American Journal of Theology University of Chicago.
