The Dionne Years : a Thirties Melodrama Pierre Berton,1978 Pierre Berton Brian Mckillop,2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920 2004 was different from his peers Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures

The Munro Family from Longlac Kenneth Munro,2014-09-04 This is the story of the Munro family of Longlac George Jane and I spent our salad days in this picturesque little Northwestern Ontario community based on the pulp industry nestled between two First Nations reserves It is the story of a largely agricultural family whose members had deep roots in the soil of Saskatchewan and Ontario and whose offspring struggled throughout the twentieth century to become well educated middle class urban family members Although my grandparents and parents brought family characteristics to bear on the development of me and my siblings this little community provided an environment in our early years which left an indelible influence on all three of our lives Longlac was a mirror of the larger Canadian environment which sometimes exhibited prejudice and stifled creativity but it also exhibited tolerance and allowed freedom for personal growth Education was the passport to employment in urban Canada and to a full participation in Canadian life Our parents saw that my siblings and I knew of our origins in both western and eastern Canada and gave us every opportunity to become familiar with both the English and French languages and cultures Our eye on the world was the CBC whose low power relay transmitter broadcast English language programs during the day This environment was our springboard to success in our various professions and provided the following generations with an ability to contribute to Canada as hard working caring members of a middle class family

Reality Gendervision Brenda R. Weber,2014-03-03 This essay collection focuses on the gendered dimensions of reality television in both the United States and Great Britain Through close readings of a wide range of reality programming from Finding Sarah and Sister Wives to Ghost Adventures and Deadliest Warrior the contributors think through questions of femininity and masculinity as they relate to the intersections of gender race class and sexuality They connect the genre s combination of real people and surreal experiences of authenticity and artifice to the production of identity and norms of citizenship the commodification of selfhood and the naturalization of regimes of power Whether assessing the Kardashian family brand portrayals of hoarders or big family programs such as 19 Kids and Counting the contributors analyze reality television as a relevant site for the production and performance of gender In the process they illuminate the larger neoliberal and postfeminist contexts in which reality TV is produced promoted watched and experienced Contributors David Greven Dana Heller Su Holmes Deborah Jermyn Misha Kavka Amanda Ann Klein Susan Lepselter Diane Negra Laurie Ouellette Gareth Palmer Kirsten Pike Maria Pramaggiore Kimberly Springer Rebecca Stephens Lindsay Steenberg Brenda R Weber

Nipissing Françoise Noël,2015-01-19 2016 Louise de Kiriline Lawrence Award Shortlisted 2015 Speaker s Book Award Shortlisted Explore the history of tourism in the Nipissing Passageway from Mattawa to Georgian Bay beginning with Champlain s voyage in 1615 In the nineteenth century while the hope of building a Georgian Bay Ship Canal remained elusive promotional efforts were made by the railways to market the area as a sportsman s paradise In the early twentieth century Ontario began to build roads to lure American motorists to the area In Nipissing Fran oise No l demonstrates how these efforts led to the early appearance of cottagers in the French River area and the rise of local outfitters Places of interest include Quintland named for the famed Dionne Quintuplets which was seen as a pilgrimage site and saw resort expansion through to the post war recovery A look at the Nipissing area today reveals that for many it remains a wilderness playground Quadruplets and Higher Multiple Births Marie M. Clay,Clay,2011-12-14 The advent of hormonal infertility treatments and in vitro fertilization techniques have led to a sharp increase in the number of quadruplet and higher order conceptions in recent years Improved neonatal care and nutrition have meant that many more of these babies survive Yet it appears that very little research has been done into the lives of such children and the psychodevelopmental consequences of their multiple status In this book Marie M Clay brings together what is known from historical records and reports in the medical psychological and popular press She points to the contribution that research studies on higher multiple sets could make to our understanding of genetic environmental interactions and gives valuable methodological advice for those wishing to initiate such a study Changes in social practices and medical knowledge are highlighted various aspects of pregnancy and birth are discussed and the practical and emotional problems faced by families of multiple sets are sensitively described Appended to the book are an illustrated Catalog of quadruplet case reports gleaned from the literature including birth details and postnatal histories plus a directory of multiple birth associations support groups and study centers around the world
