House and Home Thomas Barrie, 2017-03-16 House and home are words routinely used to describe where and how one lives This book challenges predominant definitions and argues that domesticity fundamentally satisfies the human need to create and inhabit a defined place in the world Consequently house and home have performed numerous cultural and ontological roles and have been assiduously represented in scripture literature art and philosophy This book presents how the search for home in an unpredictable world led people to create myths about the origins of architecture houses for their gods and house tombs for eternal life Turning to more recent topics it discusses how writers often used simple huts as a means to address the essentials of existence modernist architects envisioned the capacity of house and home to improve society and the suburban house was positioned as a superior setting for culture and family Throughout the book house and home are critically examined to illustrate the perennial role and capacity of architecture to articulate the human condition position it more meaningfully in the world and assist in our collective homecoming

Gilded Shrines Orin Brightfield, AI, 2025-02-26 Gilded Shrines explores the captivating world of sacred spaces examining temples shrines and other religious structures across diverse cultures and historical periods It delves into how civilizations have consistently dedicated significant resources to constructing these sites revealing their architectural magnificence and profound cultural social and spiritual importance The book highlights that these spaces are not merely buildings but potent symbols reflecting a civilization's worldview and values For example the book analyzes how sacred architecture embodies complex theological ideas and societal hierarchies The book progresses through core concepts related to sacred architecture then explores case studies from ancient Egypt to pre Columbian America detailing the architectural design decorative elements and ritual activities associated with the sites It further considers modern implications for contemporary design cultural preservation and interfaith dialogue By integrating architectural analysis with cultural and historical contexts Gilded Shrines provides a deeper understanding of diverse religious traditions and their lasting impact on human civilization

In the Shadow of the Church Mattia Guidetti,2016-11-07 In his book In the Shadow of the Church The Building of Mosques in Early Medieval Syria Mattia Guidetti examines the establishment of Muslim religious architecture within the Christian context in which it first appeared in the Syrian region contributing to the debate on the transformation of late antique society to a Muslim one He scrutinizes the slow process of conversion to Islam of the most important town centers by looking at religious places of both communities between the seventh and the eleventh century The author assesses the relevancy of churches by analyzing the location of mosques and by researching phenomena of transfer of marble material from churches to mosques

The Two Faces of Islam Stephen Schwartz,2003-09-09 Since its formation in 1932 Saudi Arabia has been ruled by two interdependent families The Al Sa uds control politics and the descendants of Ibn Abd al Wahhab impose Wahhabism a violent fanatical perversion of the pluralistic Islam practiced by most Muslims Stephen Schwartz argues that Wahhabism vigorously exported with the help of Saudi oil money is what incites Palestinian suicide bombers Osama bin Laden and other Islamic terrorists throughout the world Schwartz reveals the hypocrisy of the Saudi regime whose moderate facade conceals state sponsored repression and terrorism He also raises troubling questions about Wahhabi infiltration of America s Islamic community and about U S oil companies sanitizing Saudi Arabia s image for the West This sharp analysis and eye opening expose illuminates the background to the September 11th terrorist attacks and offers new approaches for U S policy toward its closest ally in the Middle East

Visual proficiency - A perspective on art education Kunibert Bering,Rolf Niehoff,2015-12-18 Every day over a million images are uploaded to flickr This is a striking example of the so called flood of images that emerged with the beginning of the digital age A generation of adolescents has already been socialised with this flood of images and deals with it on a daily basis both in their networks and elsewhere Art education thus faces significant challenges art is the only school subject that deals with the problems inherent in images as images making them the focus of pedagogic activity This volume presents both the foundations for engaging with the phenomenon of the image in a competent and historically informed manner as well as the perspectives for art education that arise from these foundations It is based upon the conviction that providing orientation in a world defined by images does not mean following solely a technocratic functionalist or even neoliberal concept of education Quite the contrary providing an orientation for how to deal with images in a world that is dominated by them is a crucial part of the holistic development of young people s personalities The volume s main focus lies upon the new functions taken on both by the image and by art more generally It takes into account aspects of globalisation and participation and also includes more unusual views often from a cross media perspective of art and its historical repertory which even current image creation is unable to dispense with The volume also deals extensively with architecture and the images it conveys

The Heritage of Edirne in Ottoman and Turkish Times Birgit Krawietz, Florian Riedler, 2019-12-16 Modern scholarship has not given Edirne the attention it deserves regarding its significance as one of the capitals of the Ottoman Empire This edited volume offers a reinterpretation of Edirne s history from Early Ottoman times to recent periods of the Turkish Republic Presently disconnections and discontinuities introduced by the transition from empire to nation state still characterize the image of the city and the historiography about it In contrast this volume examines how the city engages in the forming deflecting and creative appropriation of its heritage a process that has turned Edirne into a UNESCO heritage hotspot A closer historical analysis demonstrates the dissonances and contradictions that these different interpretations and uses of heritage produce From the beginning Edirne was shaped by its connectivity and relationality to other places above all to Istanbul This perspective is employed at many different levels e g with regard to its population institutions architecture infrastructures and popular culture but also regarding the imaginations Edirne triggered In sum this multi disciplinary volume boosts urban history beyond Istanbul and offers new insight into Ottoman and Turkish connectivities from the vantage point of certain key moments of Edirne s history
