The Doubtful Strait Or El Estrecho Dudoso:

The Doubtful Strait Ernesto Cardenal,1995 Practicing Memory in Central American Literature N. Caso,2010-03-29

Through penetrating analysis of twentieth century historical fiction from Central America this book asks why do so many literary texts in the region address historical issues What kinds of stories are told about the past when authors choose the fictional realm to represent history Why access memory through fiction and poetry Nicole Caso traces the active interplay between language space and memory in the continuous process of defining local identities through literature Ultimately this book looks to the dynamic between form and content to identify potential maps that are suggested in each of these texts in order to imagine possibilities of action in the future

Omar Cabezas, Nicaragua, and the Narrative of Liberation José María Mantero,2019-06-26 Throughout his political and military career Omar Cabezas fought to transform Nicaragua to implement the ethics that had led him to participate in the armed struggle against Anastasio Somoza's regime and to be active during the 1980s and 1990s as a member of the National Congress Omar Cabezas Nicaragua and the Narrative of Liberation To the Revolution and Beyond surveys the foundations of liberation discourse as it relates to the work of Omar Cabezas It examines themes associated with Nicaraguan and Latin American culture and literature considering key issues of national liberation and identity in the wake of the Sandinista revolution By contextualizing the research within a continental and national perspective and using concepts such as utopia orality and humor to frame the discussion on national liberation Mantero shows the symbiotic relationship between the work of Cabezas and the reformulation of Nicaraguan identity in the post revolution
