The Drop in My Drink Meredith Hooper, 1998 Follows a single drop of water on its journey through millions of years of the earth's history Drop in My Drink Meredith Hooper, 1999-06-03 Students With Interrupted Formal Education

Brenda Custodio, Judith B. O'Loughlin, 2017-02-23 New hope for our most vulnerable English learners One of the guiding principles of effective English language teaching is for educators to know their students And that in a nutshell captures the value of this book The compassion that Custodio and O Loughlin feel for our SIFE students the commitment they have to educating them well and the comprehension they have of the assets these learners bring to the classroom are evident in the writing tools and vignettes they share Deborah J Short Under the best of circumstances the academic demands of today's classrooms can be daunting to our English learners But for the tens of thousands of newly arrived students with interrupted formal education even the social challenges can be outright overwhelming Rely on this all in one guide from Brenda Custodio and Judith O Loughlin for expert insight on how to build the skills these students need for success in school and beyond Inside you'll find Essential background on factors leading to interrupted education Specific focus on refugee children and Latino immigrants Guidance on building internal resilience for long term social and emotional health Recommendations for creating supportive environments at the classroom school and district level About one thing Brenda and Judith are absolutely convinced our SIFE students can learn and make progress often at a remarkable speed But it's up to us their educators to provide the time attention and a specific focus Consider this book your first step forward Children's Literature Aligned with SDGs to Promote Global Competencies Angela K. Salmon, Aixa Pérez-Prado, Karin Morrison, Flavia Iuspa, 2024-05-23 This book presents children's literature as a platform for learning and helping young readers develop the knowledge skills and attitudes needed to thrive in an interconnected and diverse global society It draws from various theoretical frameworks and research findings to implement critical literacy and culturally responsive teaching in the meaning making process The book focuses on global competencies and Sustainable Development Goals SDGs as intertwined concepts that work together to foster a more sustainable inclusive and equitable world Developing global competencies empowers children and communities to actively participate in achieving the SDGs and addressing the pressing challenges of our time The authors set high expectations on children as actors in transforming society To facilitate this the book offers an overview of child development theories as a foundation for designing developmentally appropriate practices to extend children's books toward deep thinking and understanding The book includes sample lessons that use cutting edge research based pedagogies and tools such as visible thinking routines and other approaches Those lessons also help readers identify the Habits of Mind HOM children can develop by listening to and discussing stories The HOM are attributes of good problem finders and problem solvers needed when confronting complex issues The book provides resources and sample lessons that implement different thinking strategies to engage children in questioning and analyzing what they read making them more critical This is how children deeply understand the world and their role in creating positive change The book aims to cultivate change makers and global citizens through stories It offers innovative approaches including online learning options in accessible and engaging ways to help children think globally and act locally Through the power of children s literature this book serves a larger agenda To build a more thoughtful world for future generations By caring for and learning from one another through suggested activities in this book they will share the riches and resources from across the world As children learn about the promise of actions toward the UN Sustainable Goals they can imagine living in an interdependent learning community where all people continually searching for ways to trust each other learn together and grow toward greater intelligence Arthur Costa and Bena Kallick Co Founders and Directors of The Institute for Habits of Mind Teaching the Sustainable Development Goals to Young Citizens (10-16 years) Anne M.
