The Demon Of Histlewicks Downs:

The Demon of Histlewicks Downs Douglas J. Bornemann, 2014-09-13 A new age of enlightenment has dawned and the city of Caprian is among the first to embrace its promise. At its heart a new appreciation for the vast potential of the marriage of magic to reason and Thoren Theratigan's family is poised to reap the rewards. Though his father can't cast an actual spell to save his life his nuanced knowledge of magic theory nonetheless places his services in high demand until strange men burst into the family shop and drag both of Thoren's parents off as heretics. Alone and desperate Thoren finds help where he least expects it and he's determined to leverage his good luck to attempt his parents rescue. Armed only with a mysterious pocket watch and a fraction of his father's esoteric knowledge Thoren must finesse both savvy Inquisitors and dangerous heretics in situations where almost no one is who he seems to be. The Demon of Histlewicks Downs is the story of a young man who strives for honor in a complex world where the fine line separating right from wrong magic from reason is neither bright nor particularly clear and where determination without subtlety can quickly turn deadly.
