The Desiring Image Gilles Deleuze And Contemporary Queer Cinema:

The Desiring-Image Nick Davis, 2013-06-03 The Desiring Image yields new models of queer cinema produced since the late 1980s based on close formal analysis of diverse films as well as innovative contributions to current film theory. The book defines queer cinema less as a specific genre or in terms of gay and lesbian identity but more broadly as a kind of filmmaking that conveys sexual desire and orientation as potentially fluid within any individual's experience and as forces that can therefore unite unlikely groups of people along new lines socially, sexually or politically. The films driving this analysis range from celebrated fixtures of the New Queer Cinema of the 1990s including Cheryl Dunye's The Watermelon Woman and Todd Haynes's Velvet Goldmine to sexually provocative films of the same era that are rarely classified as queer: David Cronenberg's Dead Ringers and Naked Lunch to breakout films by 21st century directors: Rodney Evans's Brother to Brother, John Cameron Mitchell's Shortbus. To frame these readings and to avoid heterosexist assumptions in other forms of film analysis, The Desiring Image revisits the work of the philosopher Gilles Deleuze whose two major works on cinema somehow never address the radical ideas about desire he expresses in other texts. This book brings those notions together in innovative ways, making them clear and accessible to newcomers and field specialists alike, with clear illustrated examples drawn from a wide range of movies extending beyond the central case studies. Thus The Desiring Image speaks to readers interested in queer and gay/lesbian studies in film theory, in feminist and sexuality scholarship and in theory and philosophy, putting those discourses into rich, surprising conversations with popular cinema of the last 30 years. The Desiring-image Nick Davis, 2013. This text redefines queer cinema as a kind of filmmaking that conveys sexuality and desire as fundamentally fluid for all people, exceeding familiar stories and themes in many LGBT movies. The Desiring-image Nicholas Keeling Davis, 2005. The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema Ronald Gregg, Amy Villarejo, 2021. The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema encompasses more than a century of filmmaking, film criticism and film reception, looking at the ways in which the idea of queer cinema has expanded as a descriptor for a global arts practice. Deleuze, Cinema and the Thought of the World Allan James Thomas, 2018-03-07. Why does Gilles Deleuze write about the cinema to address specific philosophical problems? Deleuze turns to the cinema precisely because its formal resources enable it to think the relation between movement and duration in ways that philosophy cannot. Allan James Thomas unpacks the nature of the philosophical problems that Deleuze turns to the cinema to resolve and shows how resources of the cinema enable him to do so where philosophy alone cannot. He offers new insights into the conceptual underpinnings both of the Cinema books themselves and of the trajectory of Deleuzian philosophy. The Rise of Central American Film in the Twenty-First Century Mauricio Espinoza, Jared List, 2023-08-29. This volume explores the main trends, genres and themes that define the emerging filmmaking industry in Central America, providing a needed overview of one of the least explored cinemas in the world.

The Rhythm Image Steven Shaviro, 2022-11-17. Music videos play a critical role in our age of ubiquitous streaming digital media They project the personas and visions of musical artists they stand at the cutting edge of developments in popular culture and they fuse and revise multiple frames of reference from dance to high fashion to cult movies and television shows to Internet memes Above all music videos are laboratories for experimenting with new forms of audiovisual expression The Rhythm Image explores all these dimensions The book analyzes in depth recent music videos for artists ranging from pop superstar The Weeknd to independent women artists like FKA twigs and Dawn Richard The music videos discussed in this book all treat the traditional themes of popular music sex and romance money and fame and the lived experiences of race and gender But they twist these themes in strange and unexpected ways in order to reflect our entanglement with a digital world of social media data gathering and 24/7 demands upon our attention New Maricón Cinema Vinodh Venkatesh, 2016-09-27 Recent critically and commercially acclaimed Latin American films such as XXY Contracorriente and Plan B create an affective and bodily connection with viewers that elicits in them an emotive and empathic relationship with queer identities Referring to these films as New Maricón Cinema Vinodh Venkatesh argues that they represent a distinct break from what he terms Maricón Cinema or a cinema that deals with sex and gender difference through an ethically and visually disaffected position exemplified in films such as Fresa y chocolate No se lo digas a nadie and El lugar sin límites Covering feature films from Argentina Chile Cuba Ecuador Mexico Peru the United States and Venezuela New Maricón Cinema is the first study to contextualize and analyze recent homo trans intersexed themed cinema in Latin America within a broader historical and aesthetic genealogy Working with theories of affect circulation and orientations Venkatesh examines key scenes in the work of auteurs such as Marco Berger Javier Fuentes León and Julia Solomonoff and in films including Antes que anochezca and Y tu mamá también to show how their use of an affective poetics situates and regenerates viewers in an ethically productive cinematic space He further demonstrates that New Maricón Cinema has encouraged the production of gay friendly commercial films for popular audiences which reflects wider sociocultural changes regarding gender difference and civil rights that are occurring in Latin America The Fold Laura U. Marks, 2024-02-26 Laura U Marks offers a practical philosophy and aesthetic theory for living in and apprehending a cosmos in which every being and every thing is infinitely connected The Morph-Image Steen Ledet Christiansen, 2024-09-12 In The Morph Image The Subjunctive Synthesis of Time Steen Ledet Christiansen argues for a new model of digital cinema that draws on Deleuzian and Whiteheadian insights into time and the future This model insists that the philosophy of time must be rethought to provide a better understanding of the future and that the digital capacities of post cinema present occasions of thought well suited to this task The figure of the morph Christiansen posits allows a conception of how post cinema expresses time as a means of capture that appears liberatory but modulates subjectivities into temporal forms of control These temporal forms include digital animacies flows loops synthetic long takes and disjunctive editing all of which are false formations of freedom Ultimately the author positions the unruly creativity of an event's potential of making the impossible possible in order to bring about true advancements into novelty as escape from this dynamic This book contributes to both Deleuzian film theory and a burgeoning Whiteheadian film philosophy through deep engagement with key post cinematic films including Holy Motors Collateral Domino Limitless Spring Breakers and Everything Everywhere All at Once In doing so important concepts of potentiality actuality and the future are considered and addressed in relation to the contemporary capitalist regime of control

The Cinema of Todd Haynes James Morrison, 2007 From the trenches of independent American film of the 1990s Todd Haynes has emerged in the 21st century as one of the world's most audacious filmmakers In a series of smart informative essays this book traces his career from its roots in New Queer Cinema to the Oscar nominated Far From Heaven

Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron, 2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 Pdale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Ver 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender Films such as Sitcom Fran ois Ozon 1998 L Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997 Pourquoi pas moi St phane Giusti 1999 Dr le de Flix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and or gender as unfixed With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical melodrama romance or road movie these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address

Queer Post-Cinema Astrid Deuber-Mankowsky, 2025-05-06 The pioneers of what has been labelled New Queer Cinema laid the foundation for a Queer Post Cinema a movement in which artists experiment with technology in innovative ways Through original readings of Todd Haynes's early films Sharon Hayes and Yael Bartana's videos and installations Su Friedrich's digital video Seeing Red Charlie Producers's iPhone film Bridgit and Claire Denis's science fiction film Highlife this monograph shows how artists are creating a new form of resistance in the time of the digital image and generative AI

Gilles Deleuze: Image and Text Eugene W. Holland, Daniel W. Smith, Charles J. Stivale, 2009-06-04 Gilles Deleuze Image and Text focuses on the intersection between Deleuzian philosophy and the arts Deleuze combined exceptionally rigorous insight into important Western philosophers with an extraordinary sensitivity to literature music painting and film He was intensely interested in the medium of thought which is by no means limited to philosophy alone it also takes place in science mathematics literature painting and cinema to name just some of the genres of thought to which Deleuze most often refers His own thinking emerged almost as often in conversation with artists and literary writers as in engagement with other philosophers and his philosophy cannot be fully grasped without an understanding of his engagement with the arts This significant and timely collection of essays from an international team of leading Deleuze scholars brings together interpretations and commentaries from Deleuzian perspectives on subjects such as literature painting music and film The book represents diverse modes of engagement with Deleuze's philosophical concepts and problems and demonstrates the central role the arts play in any understanding of his philosophical ideas

Queer Cinema in the World Karl Schoonover, Rosalind Galt, 2016-11-17

Proposing a radical vision of cinema's queer globalism Karl Schoonover and Rosalind Galt explore how queer filmmaking intersects with international sexual cultures geopolitics and aesthetics to disrupt dominant modes of world making Whether in its exploration of queer cinematic temporality the paradox of the queer popular or the deviant ecologies of the queer pastoral Schoonover and Galt reimagine the scope of queer film studies The authors move beyond the gay art cinema canon to consider a broad range of films from Chinese lesbian drama and Swedish genderqueer documentary to Bangladeshi melodrama and Bolivian activist video Schoonover and Galt make a case for the centrality of queerness in cinema and trace how queer cinema circulates around the globe institutionally via film festivals online consumption and human rights campaigns but also affectively in the production of a queer sensorium In this account cinema creates a uniquely potent mode of queer worldliness one that disrupts normative ways of being in the world and forges revised modes of belonging

Deleuze Reframed

Damian Sutton, David Martin-Jones, 2013-02-05 Are your students baffled by Baudrillard Dazed by Deleuze Confused by Kristeva Other beginners guides can feel as impenetrable as the original texts to students who think in images Contemporary Thinkers Reframed instead uses the language of the arts to explore the usefulness in practice of complex ideas Short contemporary and accessible these lively books utilise actual examples of artworks films television shows works of architecture fashion and even computer games to explain and explore the work of the most commonly taught thinkers Conceived specifically for the visually minded the series will prove invaluable to students right across the visual arts Deleuze disdains easy answers Yet easy answers to Deleuze are what students need Without reducing Deleuze's complex body of thought to simplistic solutions this very contemporary guide leads the reader into the world of Deleuze's spiralling thought through concrete examples from art film TV and even computer games From Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and The Cell to Pac Man and Doom and from the work of Matthew Barney and Helen Chadwick to Lost and Doctor Who this easily digestible introduction looks at the key ideas promoted by Deleuze both in his own work and in his notoriously difficult collaborations with Felix Guattari to make them both fresh and relevant to the visual arts today

Screening Queer Memory Anamarija Horvat, 2021-04-22 In Screening Queer Memory Anamarija Horvat examines how LGBTQ history has been represented on screen and interrogates the specificity of queer memory She poses several questions How are the pasts of LGBTQ people and communities visualised and commemorated on screen How do these representations comment on the influence of film and television on the construction of queer memory How do they present the passage of memory from one generation of LGBTQ people to another Finally which narratives of the queer past particularly of the activist past are being commemorated and which obscured Horvat exemplifies how contemporary British and American cinema and television have commented on the specificity of queer memory how they have reflected aspects of its construction as well as participated in its creation In doing so she adds to an under examined area of queer film and television research which has privileged concepts of nostalgia history temporality and the archive over memory Films and television shows explored include Cheryl Dunye's The Watermelon Woman 1996 Todd Haynes Velvet Goldmine 1998 Joey Soloway's Transparent 2014 2019 Matthew Warchus Pride 2014 and Tom Rob Smith's London Spy 2015

In Search of a New Image of Thought Gregg Lambert, 2012 Gregg Lambert demonstrates that since the publication of Proust and Signs in 1964 Gilles Deleuze's search for a new means of philosophical expression became a central theme of all of his oeuvre including those written with psychoanalyst Felix Guattari Lambert like Deleuze calls this the image of thought Lambert's exploration begins with Deleuze's earliest exposition of the Proustian image of thought and then follows the tangled history of the image that runs through subsequent works such as Kafka Toward a Minor Literature The Rhizome which serves as an introduction to Deleuze's A Thousand Plateaus and several later writings from the 1980s collected in Essays Critical and Clinical Lambert shows how this topic underlies Deleuze's studies of modern cinema where the image of thought is predominant in the analysis of the cinematic image particularly in The Time Image Lambert finds it to be the fundamental concern of the brain proposed by Deleuze in the conclusion of What Is Philosophy? By connecting the various appearances of the image of thought that permeate Deleuze's entire corpus Lambert reveals how thinking first assumes an image how the images of thought become identified with the problem of expression early in the works and how this issue turns into a primary motive for the more experimental works of philosophy written with Guattari The study traces a distinctly modern relationship between philosophy and non philosophy literature and cinema especially that has developed into a hallmark of the term Deleuzian However Lambert argues this aspect of the philosopher's vision has not been fully appreciated in terms of its significance for philosophy not only for today but to quote Nietzsche meaning also for tomorrow and for the day after tomorrow
