Race and Ethnicity in America Russell M. Lawson,Benjamin A. Lawson,2019-10-11 Divided into four volumes Race and Ethnicity in America provides a complete overview of the history of racial and ethnic relations in America from pre contact to the present The five hundred years since Europeans made contact with the indigenous peoples of America have been dominated by racial and ethnic tensions During the colonial period from 1500 to 1776 slavery and servitude of whites blacks and Indians formed the foundation for race and ethnic relations After the American Revolution slavery labor inequalities and immigration led to racial and ethnic tensions after the Civil War labor inequalities immigration and the fight for civil rights dominated America s racial and ethnic experience From the 1960s to the present the unfulfilled promise of civil rights for all ethnic and racial groups in America has been the most important sociopolitical issue in America Race and Ethnicity in America tells this story of the fight for equality in America The first volume spans pre contact to the American Revolution the second the American Revolution to the Civil War the third Reconstruction to the Civil Rights Movement and the fourth the Civil Rights Movement to the present All volumes explore the culture society labor war and politics and cultural expressions of racial and ethnic groups      Sources of World Societies, Volume 2: Since 1450 Denis Gainty,Walter D. Ward,2011-10-04 This two volume primary source collection provides a diverse selection of documents to accompany each chapter of A history of world societies ninth edition P 4 of cover      The Subject of Violence Bat-Ami Bar On,2002 The Subject of Violence is a critical investigation of violence and the subjectifying capacities It both relies on and explores the work of Hannah Arendt At its background are feminist concerns but also concerns with violence that press against the feminist problematic and push its boundaries The book s main project is ethico political understanding and therefore it is also about finding an ethico political language for violence that escapes the standard idioms in which violence is spoken Weaving biographical fragments with theory the book addresses the very thinking of violence the possibility and implications of its comprehension genocide the Nazi Judeocide in particular and nationalism especially in its Zionist form as well as women s encounters with violence and second wave feminist engagement with the martial arts      A Brief Account of the Destruction of the Indies, Or, a Faithful Narrative of the Horrid and Unexampled Massacres Committed by the Popish Spanish Pa Bartolome De Las Casas,2011-08 Bartolome de las Casas s A Brief Account of the Destruction of the Indies stands as one of history s most damning narratives of Spanish colonization that was ever written Las Casas chronicled gory details of Spanish mistreatment of the native American Indians an abuse which led to entire communities being wiped out This account eventually provoked the Spanish crown to enact laws intended to protect the Indians and earned Bartolome de las Casas the title Defender of the Indians      Documenting United States History Jason Stacy,Stephen Heller,2015-06-18 Authored by experienced AP teachers workshop leaders and AP exam readers this document reader is the perfect resource for your redesigned AP classroom The 22 chapters follow the nine periods of U S History as defined in the new framework Within each period and chapter pedagogical tools scaffold students development of the historical thinking skills as are central to the course and the exam Key concepts are illustrated by primary documents and secondary sources including written texts drawings photographs maps and charts      A Brief Account of the Destruction of the Indies Or, a Faithful Narrative of the Horrid and Unexampled Massacres, Butcheries, and All Manner of Cruelties Bartolome De Las Casas,2012-12-10 This collection explores monetary institutions linking Europe and the Americas in the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries      Surviving Persecution Vernon J. Sterk,2019-12-12 Persecution can kill the church unless there is an adequate understanding of preparation for and response to this potentially fatal threat Surviving Persecution is a study based on more than forty years of living and working with the Mayans of Chiapas who inhabit the highlands of the southernmost state of Mexico This book can serve as a guide for Christians living in a hostile environment to know how to avoid unnecessary persecution and to survive violent persecution when it strikes This analysis of persecution can also be a valuable resource for students and congregations who desire to better understand the challenges and complexities of persecution The last chapter gives guidelines for how national and international church organizations can play a vital role in helping the suffering church survive and thrive From his personal experience of being the target of persecution and then working with the persecuted indigenous church the author employs an anthropological approach with a biblical perspective to formulate a response to persecution that can promote the growth of the church     Discourses of Violence--violence of Discourses Dirk Wiemann,2005 The issues of violence and its control containment or overcoming range prominently in the social sciences Empirical sociology seeks to derive generalizable explanations from its research into concrete cases of the occurrence or absence of violent conflict aspiring to transform such explanations into instructions for strategic action Within cultural studies discursive and epistemic formations are assumed to be fundamentally and endemically violent In these perspectives the quotidian violence that ineluctably inheres in modern discourses manifests itself as e g normalisation privilege and exclusion thus sharing a wide range of common objects and objectives with the social sciences The essays collected in this volume address contemporary conjunctures and discourses of violence in world society from different disciplines ranging from cultural studies social science political science and philosophy to history literary criticism and psychology
