The Diary Of A Resurrection:

The Diary of a Resurrection Amanda Day, 2013-09-27 You know that saying Always listen you your heart Well I did and look where it got me This is the story of how Mina met Drew How she fell in love and then fell apart This is also the story of how when she was lost in the maze of her broken heart she found her way back Diary of a Resurrection is a Novella not suitable for younger readers due to some language used The Diary of a Resurrectionist, 1811-1812 James Blake Bailey, 1896 Redemption and the Merchant God Susan McReynolds Oddo, 2008 Dostoyevsky's antisemitism manifested in his writings of the 1870s seems to contradict his humanism and many critics have tended to dismiss it as a marginal detail of the writer's views Argues however that antisemitism held an important place in Dostoyevsky's ethical system and was linked to his vexed relationship with Christianity Notes that he staunchly held three ethical principles sanctity of children incompatibility of ethics with utilitarianism and calculation and the view that every kind of authority was bound by the same moral strictures as individuals Thus he could not accept a God who had sacrificed his son or a redemption brought about by the suffering of a child Jesus Dostoyevsky invented the image of a Jew onto whom he could project everything that was unacceptable to him in religion and Western ethics He considered the merchant ethics of both liberalism and socialism to be a Jewish idea and in particular regarded the politics of the Jew Disraeli as an embodiment of such ethics to sacrifice innocent Balkan Slavs in the name of supreme political principles In the 1870s Dostoyevsky increasingly contrasted the Russian conception of God and compassion for the weak with the Jewish Western merchant God and the idea of obtaining benefits for one person from the suffering of another innocent person He developed a conception of principal opposition between things Russian and things Jewish Metacinema David LaRocca, 2021 When a work of art shows an interest in its own status as a work of art either by reference to itself or to other works we have become accustomed to calling this move meta While scholars and critics have for decades acknowledged reflexivity in films it is only in Metacinema for the first time that a group of leading and emerging film theorists join to enthusiastically debate the meanings and implications of the meta for cinema In ten new essays on vital canonical films including 8 1 2 Holy Motors Funny Games and Clouds of Sils Maria contributors chart explore and advance the ways in which metacinema is at once a mode of filmmaking and a heuristic for studying cinematic attributes What results is not just an engagement with certain practices and concepts in widespread use in the movies from Hollywood to global cinema from documentary to the experimental and avant garde but also the development of a veritable and vital new genre of film studies With more and more films expressing reflexivity recursion reference to other films mise en abyme seriality and exhibiting related intertextual traits the time is overdue for the kind of capacious yet nuanced critical study found in Metacinema The Diaries of Leo Tolstoy graf Leo Tolstoy, 1917 The Great Texts of the Bible: Ephesians to Colossians James Hastings, 1913 The Diary of a Resurrectionist 1811-1812, to Which Are Added an Account of the Resurrection Men in London & a Short History of the Passing of the Anatomy ACT - Scholar's Choice Edition
