(Essays in Modern German Literature and Thought)* ,1952 The Disinherited Mind Erich Heller,1957 Presocratic Reflexivity: The Construction of Philosophical Discourse c. 600-450 B.C. Barry Sandywell,2002-11-01 In this third Volume of Logological Investigations Sandywell continues his sociological reconstruction of the origins of reflexive thought and discourse with special reference to pre Socratic philosophy and science and their socio political context The Struggle for the West Christopher Browning,Marko Lehti,2009-09-29 In recent years debates about the nature and future of the West have been high on the political agenda Prognoses of the West's imminent demise have been countered by those arguing for its continued relevance or those arguing that while the West will survive its nature and the balance of power between its constituent units is transforming This book argues that understanding contemporary developments requires subjecting the very idea of the West to critical scrutiny and in particular asking what kind of concept it actually is Locating the West as a discursive concept the book argues attempts to save fix or reclaim the meaning of the West are illustrative of political agendas rather than indicative of accurate claims about the essential nature of the West In contrast the book argues that as a concept the West is impregnated with various discursive legacies the most embedded of which are those of a civilisational modern and political West However while attempts to define the West's essence are therefore doomed to fail given the concept's historical and discursive flexibility such attempts reaffirm the legitimising role which claims to the West continue to perform Beyond this the book challenges traditional genealogies of the West which overwhelmingly depict the West as an inside out concept In contrast the book argues that historically outsiders have played an important role in defining the nature of the West and constituting it as a political subject processes that remain evident today This book will particularly interest students of critical security studies critical geopolitics European politics American politics and IR theory Towards a History of Consciousness Vwadek P. Marciniak, 2006 Towards a History of Consciousness Space Time and Death offers a cogent and compelling discussion of the neglected topic of the history of consciousness An analysis of our postmodern ontology reveals deep but neglected roots What are those roots and how did they grow Is there a self without consciousness What is the relation of the self to the individual Does the recognition of death contribute to the growth of consciousness As a survey of western history this work pushes the boundaries of the understanding of consciousness in intriguing and sometimes provocative directions This integrative study is intended for the serious curious student and thinker Germany Joseph A. Biesinger, 2006 A wealth of information is presented in this guide in a variety of formats including a concise narrative history a chronology and A to Z entries to provide readers with a greater understanding of German history from the Renaissance to the present day Science, Faith and Man W.
