Troward emphasizes the importance of studying universal law and practically fitting oneself to utilize it, suggesting a dual approach to personal development.

The Dore Lectures on Mental Science Thomas Troward, The Dore Lectures on Mental Science - The Original Classic Edition from 1909 Thomas Troward, 2018-11-23. The Dore Lectures On Mental Science Thomas Troward. First published in 1909. Though the laws of the universe can never be broken, they can be made to work under special conditions which will produce results that could not be produced under the conditions spontaneously provided by nature. This is a simple scientific principle and it shows us the place which is occupied by the personal factor, that namely of an intelligence which sees beyond the present limited manifestation of the Law into its real essence and which thus constitutes the instrumentality by which the innate possibilities of the Law can be evoked into forms of power, usefulness and beauty. The Spirit is that which gives life and movement to anything; in fact it is that which causes it to exist at all. The thought of the author, the impression of the painter, the feeling of the musician is that without which their works could never have come into being and so it is only as we enter into the IDEA which gives rise to the work that we can derive all the enjoyment and benefit from it which it is able to bestow. If we cannot enter into the Spirit of it, the book, the picture, the music are meaningless to us. To appreciate them we must share the mental attitude of their creator. This is a universal principle: if we do not enter into the Spirit of a thing it is dead so far as we are concerned; but if we do enter into it we reproduce in ourselves the same quality of life which called that thing into existence. New Thought then is not the name of a particular sect but is the essential factor by which our own future development is to be carried on and its essence consists in seeing the relation of things in a New Order.

Changing One's Thinking Changes One's Life: Lectures on Mental Science Thomas Troward, 2019-03-24. The purpose of this book is to indicate the Natural Principles governing the relation between Mental Action and Material Conditions. Mental Science is one of the earliest New Thought paths. It emphasizes personal development as the vehicle to awaken one's latent abilities. The New Thought movement is a movement which developed in the United States in the 19th century. It holds that Infinite Intelligence or God is everywhere; spirit is the totality of real things; true human selfhood is divine; divine thought is a force for good; sickness originates in the mind and right thinking has a healing effect.

there is a certain atomic as well as psychical intelligence which governs the world in every detail After describing the unity of the spirit forces showing that they are under great laws that regulate their activity he takes up the subjective and objective minds or the conscious or the subconscious activities of the brain and points out their relation and association and how far they dominate and influence the details of life The chapters on the laws of growth and receptivity showing that universal mind and individual mind are exact results and not random changing efforts Also it is possible to trace them to their causes In the next chapter intuitions and their indications and meanings and the law which control them are shown to be realities and that of the objective mind which may be briefly stated as follows The subjective mind is only able to reason deductively and not inductively while the objective mind can do both Some people possess the power of visualization or making mental pictures of things in a greater degree than others and by such this faculty may advantageously be employed to facilitate their realization of the working of the Law But those who do not possess this faculty in any marked degree need not be discouraged by their want of it for visualization is not the only way of realizing that the law is at work on the invisible plane My mind s a center of divine operations But if our thought possesses this creative power why are we hampered by adverse conditions The answer is because hitherto we have used our power invertedly We have taken the starting point of our thought from external facts and consequently created a repetition of facts of a similar nature and so long as we do this we must needs go on perpetuating the old circle of limitation And owing to the sensitiveness of the subconscious mind to suggestion See Edinburgh Lectures chapter V we are subject to a very powerful negative influence from those who are unacquainted with Scroll Up and Get Your Copy      The Dore Lectures on Mental Science \(Classic Reprint\) Thomas Troward,2017-10-24 Excerpt from The Dore Lectures on Mental Science The more perfect therefore the working of the personal factor the greater will be the results developed from the Universal Law and hence our lines Of study should be two fold on the one hand the theoretical study Of the action of Universal Law and on the other the practical fitting of our selves to make use of it and if the present volume should assist any reader in this two fold quest it will have answered its purpose The different subjects have necessarily been treated very briefly and the addresses can only be considered as suggestions for lines Of thought which the reader will be able to work out for himself and he must therefore not expect that careful elaboration Of detail which I would gladly have bestowed had I been writing on one of these subjects exclusively This little book must be taken only for what it is the record of somewhat fragmentary talks with a very indulgent audience to whom I gratefully dedicate the volume About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Dore and Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science Thomas Troward,2007-10 The Dore and Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science is a collection of two important lectures by author and lecturer Thomas Troward The lectures which were originally published in the early 20th century are considered to be one of the most influential works for the major authors of the New Thought movement Troward s writings have influenced many authors from the original New Thought movement to many authors of today The Dore and Edinburgh Lectures on Mental Science is highly recommended for those who are interested in reading a key work from the New Thought movement as well
