

THE MARTHA
WASHINGTON
COOK BOOK

by Marie Kimball

EDWARD McCANN

HERE is a new cook book, which is the first and only American prepared from the original manuscripts by Thomas Parke Cook to Martha Washington which his kitchen never have released for publication by The Historical Society of Pennsylvania. The Martha Washington Cook Book presents the "rules" which brought honor to America's first First Lady as housewife and soldier throughout her life. The recipes have been completely reworked and the book filled to the brim with illustrations of remarkable interest and containing accounts of the Washingtons and their domestic problems. The book contains three reproductions in green, including a beautiful portrait of Martha Washington, three reproductions from the original manuscripts, and numerous illustrations of black and white. It is printed on water-resistant paper and bound in washable cloth with lovely decorative endpapers.
