The Mom Comedies Do Dragonflies Roar:

The Mom Comedies Lauren Lauterwasser, 2012-03-01 Have you ever wondered whether your family's daily chaos is normal? If you read The Mom Comedies you will wonder no more. In these short humor-packed stories the reader is taken through all stages of the family malady otherwise known as parenthood. Beginning with author Lauren Lauterwasser's first time experience with pregnancy and continuing through the toddler years, this laugh-out-loud book takes in all the trials and travails that is modern motherhood. The Mom Comedies deserve a place in the sarcastic family humor tradition of Erma Bombeck. Told in brief episodes, the hilarious stories will bring laughter and tears to anyone who has ever lost their mind while raising a child. Author and of course mom Lauren Lauterwasser began the book as a blog back in the day before blogging was cool. When she became pregnant, which the inexperienced young author naively assumed would be the most stressful event she would ever have to face in life, Lauterwasser began a baby site chronicling her maternity experiences for family and friends who lived far away. Unexpectedly, she developed a following far larger than her family. E-mail requests for more mom comedies flowed through her inbox. Once she had children, two girls delivered 18 months apart, thank you, Lauterwasser didn't seem to have as much time to write. At least not until Facebook came along, which allowed her to write in short humorous bursts. Encouraged by the response to the steady stream of frank stories, Lauterwasser began posting about her crazy life as a bewildered mother. These are stories of a young working mother trying to keep herself sane alongside a smart aleck husband and two young daughters whose antics will keep the readers in stitches. In revealing her own zany family, she hopes not to just entertain readers but to make them feel like their own flesh and blood is not so crazy. From toddler speech slip-ups to fishing trips to unexpected visits from central Florida armadillos, The Mom Comedies brims with biting exasperated humor from a frenzied family perspective. Anime Classics Zettai! Brian Camp, Julie Davis, 2011-10-01 For anime connoisseurs, beginners, and the curious, the best of the best. Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1941

Even experienced collectors need some help and guidance, and How To Collect Art provides exactly this.
