Other Day George Blanchard Lucas, 1995 Between May 1943 and April 1945 George Lucas an ensign on board a service tug in the Pacific wrote more than three hundred letters home to his beloved wife Betty. Tucked safely away and discovered only after her death those letters the best of which are presented here provide a fascinating record of World War II behind the lines and an intimate look at a young naval officer's professional and emotional development. A keen observer of his surroundings Lucas describes life at sea his shipmates and exotic island cultures as well as the horrors of war made particularly apparent to him during a clean up assignment after the three day pitched battle for Tarawa. Always informative often lyrical these letters stand as a tribute to all those who lived through the war regardless of their rank or service.
