Canal Talks Resume

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States and Egypt resumed talks on the Suez Canal today, after a two-day hiatus. The talks, which were held in a private setting, were the first since the Egyptian government announced its decision to nationalize the canal. The United States has been a strong supporter of Israel, and the canal's operation has been a major point of contention between the two nations. The talks are expected to continue for several more days, as both sides seek to reach a mutually agreeable solution.

Survivor Reflects

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A survivor of the recent earthquake in Mexico City reflected on the disaster today, describing the chaos and destruction that ensued. The survivor, who was one of the few people to escape the earthquake unharmed, said that he was in the city when the quake struck, and that he was the only one left standing. He described the scene as one of utter devastation, with buildings collapsed and people fleeing in panic. The earthquake, which occurred on September 19, 1972, was one of the most powerful ever recorded, and it caused the deaths of thousands of people.

Conservation Winners Announced at Banquet

DALLAS (UPI)—The winners of the National Conservation Council's annual contest were announced today at a banquet held at the Dallas Convention Center. The winners, who were chosen from among thousands of entries, were: John and Jane Smith, and the Smith family. The Smiths were awarded the top prize, which is a $10,000 cash award. The other winners received prizes ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. The contest was held to raise awareness of the importance of conservation, and to encourage people to take action to protect the environment.

The winners were announced by the National Conservation Council, which is a part of the National Audubon Society. The council is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to the protection of the environment. It has been successful in many of its efforts, and it is hoped that the winners of the contest will continue to work for the good of the environment.

Frost Observed On Windshields

DALLAS (UPI)—A light frost was observed on the windshields of cars parked in the open today, according to a report from the Dallas Police Department. The frost was observed in the early morning hours, and it was reported that it was the first frost of the season. The police department is not sure what caused the frost, but it is possible that it was the result of a cold front moving through the area.
