Fuel policy may have caused gasoline crisis

Stephenville, Texas (AP) — A fuel policy adopted by the Stephenville Independent School District in 1977 may have contributed to a gasoline crisis in the district, according to a report released by the district's board of trustees. The report, released last week, stated that the district's fuel policy, which required the purchase of fuel for school buses at a fixed price, had caused a shortage of fuel for other vehicles in the district. The report also stated that the district's fuel policy had caused a shortage of fuel for other vehicles in the district.

Initiative and referendum proposal faces opposition

Stephenville, Texas (AP) — A proposal to hold a referendum on the issue of school finance reform in Stephenville is facing opposition from a group of local citizens. The proposal, which was introduced by the Stephenville Independent School District board of trustees, would allow voters to decide whether or not to approve a plan to increase property taxes to fund school programs. The proposal has been met with opposition from a group of local citizens who believe that the plan would be too costly and would not be in the best interests of the district.

Warmer temperatures in Cross Timbers forecast

Stephenville, Texas (AP) — A forecast of warmer temperatures in the Cross Timbers region of Texas is expected for the next few days. The forecast, released by the National Weather Service, states that temperatures will rise from the current low of 40 degrees Fahrenheit to a high of 60 degrees Fahrenheit. The forecast also states that there will be a chance of rain on Thursday and Friday.

Choir awards given

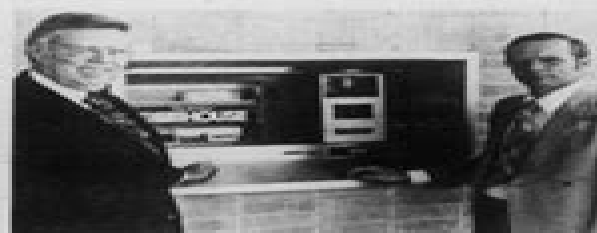

Stephenville, Texas (AP) — Awards were given to the members of the Stephenville Independent School District choir at a ceremony held last week. The awards were given to the members of the choir for their excellent performance during the district's annual choir competition.
