Have you ever wanted your own personal writing coach to help improve your teaching of writing? How about two personal writing coaches? In Day by Day, Stacey Shubitz and Ruth Ayres, creators of the popular blog Two Writing Teachers, guide you through the trials and tribulations of a whole year of writing workshop. Day by Day is organized around six fundamental components of writing workshop: routines, mini lessons, choice, mentors, conferring, and assessment. Each component is broken down into ten day sections. Each section includes a detailed discussion, a challenge that teachers can apply immediately, and questions to help teachers assess the process to see what went right, what went wrong, and most importantly, why. Ruth and Stacey also provide daily encouragement, support, practical strategies, tips, advice, and everything you need to run an effective writing workshop that meets the needs of all the different writers in your classroom.

Student-Led Conferences Janet Millar Grant, Barbara Heffler, Kadri Mereweather, 1995 Shows teachers how to empower students to take responsibility for their own learning, evaluate their own work, and set their own goals. Offers advice on preparing students, responding to questions from parents, organizing a parent orientation night, developing portfolios, and following up.

Assessment and Instruction of Reading and Writing Disability Marjorie Y. Lipson, Karen K. Wixson, 1997 Focusing on ability disability and reading/writing from an interactive perspective, this text emphasizes the importance of determining and establishing the appropriate learning environment for the individual learner.

Teaching Language Arts Carole Cox, 2008 Engaging, readable, student-friendly, and practical, this text is built on a strong theoretical and research base and is illustrated and clarified with real-life examples of children and teachers from today's diverse classrooms. Written to reflect cutting-edge theory, new research, the latest policies, the new Common Core State Standards, and best practices in the rapidly changing world of language arts instruction, Carole Cox's new Seventh Edition continues to guide students as they learn the many skills required to become an effective teacher today.

Assessment and Instruction of Reading and Writing Difficulty Marjorie Y. Lipson, Karen K. Wixson, 2003 Focusing on ability disability and reading/writing from an interactive perspective, this text emphasizes the importance of determining and establishing the appropriate learning environment for the individual learner. Extensive in-depth treatment of current research and best practices make this text a must-have addition to any current or future teacher's library. Section I, Chs 1-3, provides the readers with a strong, comprehensive knowledge of reading/writing research and assessment practices from which readers can move forward to the second and third sections of the text, Chs 4-10, which contain detailed discussions and examples of assessment practices. Traditional assessments of students are fully explored, and two chapters are devoted to assessing context factors like instructional methods and materials and tasks. Both classroom-based and standardized assessments are described. Section IV stands alone as an important chapter linking assessment to instruction by means of diagnostic instruction. Section V, Ch 12-15, is devoted to instructional practices designed to improve reading and writing instruction for struggling students. Chapters on word recognition, vocabulary, comprehension, composition, and high-utility strategies address the major components of literacy development. In the final section Ch 16 issues related to professional standards and written reports is addressed

Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning, 2005 With its inclusive view of literacy Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials With its careful balance between the theory and the practice readers are always given the theories behind the methods encouraging them to choose adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book Unlike comparable texts the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First

Writing Without Boundaries Suzette Youngs, Diane M. Barone, 2007 Research and experience show that when teachers give children choice in what they write about students engagement in their writing increases So imagine what can happen when you offer them choices about what genres to write in and what kinds of voices to write from The possibilities are unlimited and the strength and depth of the connection that students make to a subject can be profound In Writing Without Boundaries you ll find out how to unlock this potential in all your students as they discover what it means to write with purpose Writing Without Boundaries gives you everything you need to get started teaching multigenre writing Suzette Youngs and Diane Barone demonstrate why it works providing the rationale the research and examples of completed student work Then they take you inside classrooms to show how they and other teachers implement multimodal papers and how these lessons in topic selection organization audience planning and presentation will forever change how primary and intermediate students approach writing You ll discover how the writing workshop model can help you coordinate the efforts of your whole class even while you support each student in selecting from more than 60 genres to communicate their interests Best of all Writing Without Boundaries includes classroom tested units of study that use multigenre writing to enhance and extend your curriculum across the disciplines These units give students the chance to explore content from several perspectives as they write and speak from the point of view of historical figures compose biographies of famous or personally meaningful figures investigate historical situations respond to literature With its emphasis on choice voice and audience Writing Without Boundaries cultivates students familiarity with genres while also helping them understand how real world readers and writers communicate through genre and how a single topic can be seen and written about from many many perspectives Show students the power of combining genres Read Writing Without Boundaries and open them up to a new world of possibilities
