Writing Family History Made Very Easy A Beginners Guide:

Writing Family History Made Very Easy Noeline Kyle, 2007-03-01 You've done the research but now it's time to write it all into a fascinating history that will do your family's story justice. Researching family trees and genealogies has never been more popular and there are many courses, books, and websites to assist the amateur researcher. The problem is while family historians are enthusiastic and skilled researchers, most are not trained or confident writers and the task of writing their family history may seem overwhelming. This book offers practical and straightforward advice to help you write your family story in an interesting and accessible way. A no-nonsense guide for the beginner, this simple step-by-step approach to writing family history will prove invaluable to family historians, genealogical organisations, local and community historians, students of writing programs, teachers of writing, and libraries. Dr Noeline Kyle has used her extensive knowledge and expertise on family history research and writing to develop and facilitate writing support groups for family historians. She has also published her ideas in newspapers, community journals, popular books, and bulletins and is the author of several books including The Family History Writing Book and We Should've Listened to Grandma. Women and Family History Beginner's Guide to Family History Research Desmond Walls Allen, Carolyn Earle Billingsley, 1994 A Beginner's Guide to Online Genealogy Michael Dunn, 2015-01-02 Presents easy-to-understand strategies for researching family roots online. Featuring detailed explanations, each chapter teaches you how to navigate popular genealogy websites, decipher census data, and other online records, and connect with other family members to share your findings. The book also includes tips on using free databases and genealogy apps. Research Methodologies for Auto/biography Studies Kate Douglas, Ashley Barnwell, 2019-06-03 This collection of short essays provides a rigorous, rich, collaborative space in which scholars and practitioners debate the value of different methodological approaches to the study of life narratives and explore a diverse range of interdisciplinary methods. Auto/biography studies has been one of the most vibrant sub-disciplines to emerge in the humanities and social sciences in the past decade, providing significant links between disciplines including literary studies, languages, linguistics, digital humanities, medical humanities, creative writing, history, gender studies, education, sociology, and anthropology. The essays in this collection position auto/biography as a key discipline for modelling interdisciplinary approaches to methodology and ask what original and important thinking can auto/biography studies bring to discussions of methodology for literary studies and beyond. And how does the diversity of methodological interventions in auto/biography studies build a strong and diverse research discipline? Including some of auto/biography's leading international scholars alongside emerging scholars and exploring key subgenres and practices, this collection showcases knowledge about what we do when engaging in auto/biographical research. Research Methodologies for Auto/biography Studies offers a series of case studies that explore the research practices, reflective behaviours, and ethical considerations that inform auto/biographical research. A Genealogist's Guide to Discovering Your Female Ancestors Sharon DeBartolo Carmack, 1998 This first-ever guide reveals
