The Routledge Introduction to Twentieth- and Twenty-First-Century Canadian Poetry Erin Wunker, 2022-11-21 When asked the question what is the power of poetry writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface Williams statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural political and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty first century Canadian poetry and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements trends and forms of the same time period This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada Put differently readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements developments and poets of this time period this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis global conflicts and debates around appropriation of culture This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political social and cultural contexts The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani,2017-02-27 This Companion is the first to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual and gender approaches Poets Talk Pauline Butling,Susan Rudy,2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry Using the relaxed format of the personal interview Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub literary forms Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan African liberation movements Annharte explains her use of humour to de program Native people Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world Collection Thinking Jason Camlot,Martha Langford,Linda M. Morra,2022-09-07 Collection Thinking is a volume of essays that thinks across and beyond critical frameworks from library archival and museum studies to understand the meaning of collection as an entity and as an act It offers new models for understanding how collections have been imagined and defined assembled created and used as cultural phenomena Featuring over 70 illustrations and 21 original chapters that explore cases from a wide range of fields including library and archival studies literary studies art history media studies sound studies folklore studies game studies and education Collection Thinking builds on the important scholarly works produced on the topic of the archive over the past two decades and contributes to ongoing debates on the historical status of memory institutions The volume illustrates how the concept of collection bridges these institutional and structural categories and generates discussions of cultural activities involving artifactual arrangement preservation curation and circulation in both the private and the public spheres Edited and introduced collaboratively by three senior scholars with expertise in the fields of literature art history archives and museums Collection Thinking is designed to stimulate interdisciplinary reflection and conversation This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners interested in how we organize materials for research across disciplines of the humanities and social sciences With case studies that range from collecting Barbie dolls to medieval embroideries and with contributions from practitioners on record collecting the creation of sub culture archives and collection as artistic practice this volume will appeal to anyone who has ever wondered about why and how collections are made Antiphonies Nate Dorward,2008 Cultural Writing Literary Criticism ANTIPHONIES is a primer on some of the most exciting work in contemporary Canadian poetry These essays discuss a wide range of work from books already acclaimed as modern classics such as Erin Moure's O Cidadan Lisa Robertson's DEBBIE AN EPIC and Karen MacCormack's IMPLEXURES to the equally remarkable work of Susan Clark Catriona Strang Lissa Wolsak Christine Stewart Deanna Ferguson Lise Downe Nancy Shaw a rawlings Marie Annharte Baker and others The essays are complemented by brief selections of poems and poetics statements Canadian Books in Print.
