Lennox,2015-07-02 Excerpt from James Chalmers of New Guinea Missionary Pioneer Martyr Not once but a dozen times the writer has been asked Who was Chalmers of New Guinea It would seem that notwithstanding the numerous occasions on which this great man was enthusiastically received at public gatherings during his visits to Great Britain in 1884 85 and again in 1896 97 there is a very considerable proportion of the British people to whom he is yet unknown Moffat and Livingstone Mackay of Uganda and Paton of the New Hebrides are universally recognised as pioneer missionaries of the nineteenth century and without attempt at the invidious task of deciding their comparative merits and their individual rights of precedence we claim a place for James Chalmers in this group of missionary heroes When we try to account for the prevailing ignorance in regard to one of the most interesting personalities conceivable one of the biggest men of last century we believe we find some excuse for it in the extreme modesty of the man himself About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works James Chalmers of New Guinea Cuthbert Lennox,2014-02 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book James Chalmers of New Guinea Cuthbert Lennox,2009-03 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work
