The United States Association of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, 2024-07-30 A compilation of the annual Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Journal with indexes for easy reference The annual Journal includes art and prayers from children in the atria and reflections by catechists on developments and themes relevant to the work The overarching theme of this compilation which spans the years 2019-2023 is the Montessori foundations of CGS Each year the United States Association of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd produces a journal for members and catechists a publication that focuses on the religious life of the child and the essentials of the Christian faith The Journal's mission is to provide those concerned with children's theological education a reflective resource for ongoing formation with serious scholarship to support their work with children In continuing to learn what the child has to teach adults about God the Journal chooses themes centered on children's innate spirituality and religious development as described in the work of Maria Montessori Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi The theological artwork prayers and observations of children in the atrium are vital Of particular interest are works of the child that show the synthesis of themes presented in the atrium

Between Heaven and Earth Robert A. Orsi, 2013-10-31 Between Heaven and Earth explores the relationships men women and children have formed with the Virgin Mary and the saints in twentieth century American Catholic history and reflects more broadly on how people live in the company of sacred figures and how these relationships shape the ties between people on earth In this boldly argued and beautifully written book Robert Orsi also considers how scholars of religion occupy the ground in between belief and analysis faith and scholarship Orsi infuses his analysis with an autobiographical voice steeped in his own Italian American Catholic background from the devotion of his uncle Sal who had cerebral palsy to a crippled saint Margaret of Castello to the bond of his Tuscan grandmother with Saint Gemma Galgani Religion exists not as a medium of making meanings Orsi maintains but as a network of relationships between heaven and earth involving people of all ages as well as the many sacred figures they hold dear Orsi argues that modern academic theorizing about religion has long sanctioned dubious distinctions between good or real religious expression on the one hand and bad or bogus religion on the other which marginalize these everyday relationships with sacred figures This book is a brilliant critical inquiry into the lives that people make for better or worse between heaven and earth and into the ways scholars of religion could better study of these worlds
