The Millennium Development Goals Report 2012:

The Millennium Development Goals Report 2012 United Nations,2012-09 The report presents the yearly assessment of global progress towards the MDGs determining the areas where progress has been made and those that are lagging behind It pinpoints the areas where accelerated efforts are needed to meet the MDGs by 2015 The report is based on a master set of data compiled by the Inter Agency and Expert Group on MDG indicators led by the Statistics Division of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs

The Millennium Development Goals Report 2012 Millennium Development Goals,2011 Africa and the Millennium Development Goals Charles Mutasa,Mark Paterson,2015-10-29 This unique work by the Centre for Conflict Resolution CCR Cape Town South Africa tracks the progress Africa has made in achieving the United Nations Millennium Development Goals MDGs since 2000 Thirteen analytical chapters written by scholars and practitioners with expertise in the various areas covered by the eight MDGs are organized around the larger themes of political economy structural issues sustainable goals and human development goals They critically assess the progress that Africa has made towards the achievement of the MDGs discuss how to accelerate that progress and offer alternatives and recommendations in support of institutions in Africa that are engaged in promoting the achievement of sustainable development Throughout they examine the role of various actors including the African Union Africa s regional economic communities the United Nations the European Union etc civil society and other external development partners in light of their contributions shortfalls and viable options in shaping the continent s development agenda Together they provide a unique assessment from experts on the ground of whether the goals were a success and what remains to be done to achieve sustainable economic and human development in Africa

Poverty and the Millennium Development Goals Alberto Cimadamore,Gabriele Koehler,Thomas Pogge,2016-02-15 As the Millennium Development Goals MDGs pass their 2015 deadline and the international community begins to discuss the future of UN development policy Poverty and the Millennium Development Goals brings together leading economists from both the global North and South to provide a much needed critique of the prevailing development agenda By examining current development efforts goals and policies it exposes the structurally flawed and misleading measurements of poverty and hunger on which these efforts have been based and which have led official sources to routinely underestimate the scale of world poverty even as the global distribution of wealth becomes ever more imbalanced

The Arab Millennium Development Goals Report United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia,2013 The Fourth Arab Report on the Millennium Development Goals 2013 highlights the progress made by Arab countries in achieving MDGs since 1990 and underlines ongoing development challenges which should be addressed in any post 2015 development framework The Arab region has made impressive progress towards some MDGs But achievements are uneven The region lags behind on some important targets particularly those related to combating hunger Political social and economic transitions since 2010 have had significant impacts including halting or reversing MDG gains in some countries of the region Least Developed Countries LDCs remain behind on important targets particularly those related to nutrition food security access to water and sanitation and child and maternal mortality Publisher's description Millennium Development Goals Performance Tracking Survey Report 2012, 2013 Africa in the Post-2015 Development Agenda Leo Charles Zulu, Cristina D'Alessandro, 2018-04-19 This book offers a multifaceted examination of Africa's development into the post 2015 global agenda from a geographical perspective As a diversified and highly applied discipline geography has a lot to offer to global debates nuanced analysis of problems on and the search for innovative solutions to advance the African development agenda beyond 2015 The end of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs era and the launch of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs in September 2015 mark an important turning point for Africa and an opportune time to examine new challenges and opportunities that it faces The regional disparities in MDG progress affirm an important geographic tenet that the unique yet internally differentiated socio cultural economic political ecological biophysical and historical context give Africa distinctive challenges and opportunities that demand particular approaches to development This edited book presents innovative contributions examining Africa's development performance in diverse sectors during the MDG era as a basis for understanding prospects for its development in the SDG era and beyond It offers new and innovative study perspectives and methodological approaches on urban transformation development financing food security climate change gender equality health and regional integration among other topics and useful insights for scholars students and development practitioners This book was originally published as a special issue of African Geographical Review the journal of the American Association of Geographers Africa Specialty Group to mark the transition from MDGs to SDGs The Cultural Turn in International Aid Sophia Labadi, 2019-09-12 The Cultural Turn in International Aid is one of the first volumes to analyse a wide and comprehensive range of issues related to culture and international aid in a critical and constructive manner Assessing why international aid is provided for cultural projects rather than for other causes the book also considers whether and how donor funded cultural projects can address global challenges including post conflict recovery building peace and security strengthening resilience or promoting human rights With contributions from experts around the globe this volume critically assesses the impact of international aid including the diverse power relations and inequalities it creates and the interests it serves at international national and local levels The book also considers projects that have failed and analyses the reasons for their failure drawing out lessons learnt and considering what could be done better in the future Contributors to the volume also consider the influence of donors in privileging some forms of culture over others creating or maintaining specific memories identities and interpretations of history and their reasons for doing so These rich discussions are contextualised through a historical section which considers the definitions approaches and discourses related to culture and aid at international and regional levels Providing consideration of manifold manifestations of culture The Cultural Turn in International Aid will be of great interest to scholars students and practitioners It will be particularly useful for those engaged in the study of heritage anthropology international aid and development international relations humanitarian studies community development cultural studies politics or sociology
