COVID and Autism 2023: Lessons Learnt and Future Directions for Research Michaela DuBay, Cecilia Montiel Nava, Georgina Perez, Liz, Casara Jean Ferretti, 2024-09-05 It has been three years since many countries around the world were sent into a nationwide lockdown due to the coronavirus pandemic. As the disease infected the lungs of many people across the world there were other adverse effects that came with not only the disease itself but the aftermath of the lockdowns. Those living with pre-existing conditions saw the COVID 19 pandemic affect them in different ways to those who were otherwise healthy. This Research Topic aims to highlight evidence on how the COVID 19 pandemic has affected and continues to affect autistic individuals and to provide insights into research and interventions on how this can be tackled going forwards in the hope that the research presented will translate to best practice applications in clinical and public health settings.

Underground Gas Storage D. J. Evans, R. A. Chadwick, 2009 The UK became a net importer of natural gas in 2004 and by 2020 will import up to 90% of its requirements leaving it vulnerable to increasing energy bills and risk of disruption to supply. New pipelines to Europe and improvements to interconnectors will meet some demand but Government recognises the need for increased gas storage capacity best met by the construction of underground storage facilities. Energy security has also raised the likelihood of a new generation of coal fired power stations which to be environmentally viable will require clean coal technologies with near zero greenhouse gas emissions. A key element of this strategy will be underground CO2 storage. This volume reviews the technologies and issues involved in the underground storage of natural gas and CO2 with examples from the UK and overseas. The potential for underground storage of other gases such as hydrogen or compressed air linked to renewable sources is also reviewed Annual Meeting Proceedings, 1986 New Directions - Advancement Through Knowledge, 1986 Southwest Builder and Contractor, 1927 Industrial Development and Manufacturers' Record, 1904 Strathmore's Who's Who, 2000-2001 Strathmore Directories, Limited, 2001-05 West's Federal Supplement, 1989 Manufacturers Record, 1927 Mining Manual, 1895 Municipal Journal
