American Environmental History and Policy Frank T. Manheim, 2026-02-17 This timely book explores the rocky trajectory of US environmental history and policy from pre European settlement to the present. It includes underreported aspects of early history and the first in depth synthesis of the framing and outcomes of the groundbreaking environmental laws of the 1970s. While effective against pollution the new regulatory system led to economic decline antagonism in the business community and political division. The book traces and compares US policies with more successful policies adopted by the EU in the 1990s. With an afterword reviewing the dramatic events of the second Trump administration the book suggests future pathways for reducing polarization and promoting reform.

Resources in Education, 1985 Measuring Diets and Food Choice in the Context of a Changing World Winnie Bell, Christine Blake, Shauna Downs, 2025-08-06 Historically research in low and middle income countries has been focused on what people consume with less attention to how and why people choose to consume the foods that they do. As incomes rise and local food environments undergo rapid changes providing consumers with a wider array of options at competitive prices understanding the underlying drivers of food choice including the preferences and values that underpin them has become increasingly important In recent years there have been renewed efforts to understand the drivers of food choice in the context of changing food environments and broader food system and how these drivers link with food consumption The goal of this Research Topic is to look beyond dietary consumption what people eat by considering more holistically the various drivers of food choice how and why people eat the foods they do to better understand what underpins individual decisions Ultimately by understanding why people make the choices they do especially when situated in the local food environment and or broader food system we can identify important entry points for behavior change interventions develop a better understanding about the role of food safety in food choice decisions improve the environment climate and food systems through improved knowledge on the drivers of food choice and learn about how changing livelihoods shifts dynamics related to food choice amongst other important research tied to drivers of food choice    The Complete Directory for People with Disabilities, 1995/96 ,1995    The Complete Mental Health Directory ,2004    The Washingtonian ,1981-10    Social Science Abstracts ,1930    Resources in Education ,1984    Nicaraguan Perspectives ,1988    American Journal of Public Health and the Nation's Health ,1969    Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2003    Encyclopedia of Governmental Advisory Organizations ,1973    Annual Meeting of the American Public Health Association and Related Organizations American Public Health Association,1989    Engineering News and American Contract Journal ,1913    New Scientist ,1999    Engineering News ,1913    New Society ,1972
