EBOOK: Services Marketing: Integrating Customer Focus Across the Firm Alan Wilson, Valarie Zeithaml, Mary Jo Bitner, Dwayne Gremler, 2012-06-16 The Second European Edition of Services Marketing Integrating Customer Focus Across the Firm by Wilson Zeithaml Bitner and Gremler uniquely focuses on the development of customer relationships through quality service. Reflecting the increasing importance of the service economy, Services Marketing is the only text that put the customer's experience of services at the centre of its approach. The core theories, concepts and frameworks are retained and specifically the gaps model, a popular feature of the book. The text moves from the foundations of services marketing before introducing the gaps model and demonstrating its application to services marketing. In the second edition, the book takes on more European and International contexts to reflect the needs of courses, lecturers and students. The second edition builds on the wealth of European and International examples, cases and research in the first edition, offering more integration of European content. It has also been fully updated with the latest research to ensure that it continues to be seen as the text covering the very latest services marketing thinking. In addition, the cases section has been thoroughly examined and revised to offer a range of new case studies with a European and global focus. The online resources have also been fully revised and updated, providing an excellent package of support for lecturers and students.

Boot and Shoe Recorder, 1909 Shoe Retailer and Boots and Shoes Weekly, 1904 High-Stakes Leadership Constance Dierickx, 2017-09-22 What makes some leaders so effective when the stakes are high while others fall short? Why are some able to not only survive but to lead their organizations to new heights even in risky, fast-changing times? The answer is succinct but multi-layered: such leaders display courage, judgment and fortitude. High stakes leadership does not require unnatural powers nor is it predicated on a dangerous situation. The three signature character traits can be cultivated by anyone at any level in any organization, big or small. Organizational and leadership consultant Constance Dierickx describes high stakes leadership in a simple three-part model that illuminates the mindsets, strategies and tactics leaders must draw upon to make tough decisions: take an unpopular stand or ignore convention; providing real world examples across a range of sectors and industries. Dierickx developed her model of high stakes leadership to help her clients, executives at organizations ranging from start-ups to nonprofits to large global companies, better define what they need to bring strategy to life. This, she found, is the great gulf in business: the vast space between idea and results. High Stakes Leadership helps leaders sharpen their ability to act decisively with clarity and focus; test ideas using reason and course correct as needed; be resolute and inspire others to continue even in the face of challenges. Leading requires the courage to make conscious decisions about what to do; the judgment to separate information from short-term trends; and the fortitude to remain true to oneself and one's mission. When leaders do these things, they also become teachers, leading their teams by example, often without realizing it. The essential aspects of good leadership endure even as the environment and tactics change. Indeed, courage, judgment and fortitude are not merely tools.
