Apple Music Review Returns:

ReFocus: The Films of John Singleton Daniel Dufouraud, 2025-08-31 In 1992 John Singleton became the first Black filmmaker as well as the youngest to be nominated for the Best Director award at the Oscars. In the following decade, Singleton cemented his reputation as a Hollywood auteur who could move across genres while making critically acclaimed films that share a preoccupation with the triumphs and tribulations of Black life in America. And yet Singleton's films have received relatively little academic attention. ReFocus: The Films of John Singleton fills this scholarly vacuum. This collection of original chapters addresses Singleton's treatment of gender and racial difference, the family, urban space, and traumatic histories. It also identifies sources of inspiration in both Hollywood and world cinema, as well as draws connections between his films and the work of Black American literary figures. This collection is an invaluable resource for the future of Singleton studies.

However, many Christians still follow them and consequently have not been born again yet. This book clearly tells us what mistakes theology and doctrines have made and how to believe in Jesus in the most proper way. The New Life Mission

<https://www.bjnewlife.org> The New Music Review and Church Music Review, 1928 Pandemic Playlist Kevin Farrell, 2024-09-05 Pandemic Playlist An Exploration of COVID inspired Popular Music takes readers back to 2020 when the COVID 19 pandemic wreaked havoc on the music industry. Focusing on those artists who responded directly to the pandemic with their music, Kevin Farrell explores a selection of songs written and recorded about COVID 19. These songs range from the hilariously tongue in cheek to the painfully earnest to the self-righteously angry, coming from musicians obscure, world famous, and up-and-coming. Farrell argues that these songs, both originals and repurposed covers, are best classified by rhetorical approach rather than musical style, identifying four basic categories of COVID inspired popular music: the Coronavirus Anthem, Bono's Let Your Love Be Known, Alicia Keys' Good Job Pandemic Pop, Cardi B and iMarkkeyz's Coronavirus, Curtis Roach and Tyga's Bored in the House, the COVID Cover Gal Gadot's Imagine, Juvenile's Vax That Thang Up, and Pandemic Protest Ian Brown's Little Seed Big Tree Kid Rock's We The People. Through a study of these songs and many more, this book seeks to understand what the pandemic and the music it inspired can teach us about the previously unimaginable.

Collective Management of Music Copyright Qingqing Xu, 2023-04-17 Two of the objectives of the Chinese

Copyright Law are to protect the copyright of authors to their literary and artistic works and encourage the creation and dissemination of works In practice however in spite of the existence of the Music Copyright Society of China MCSC that was established to assist with exercising copyright music creators in China remain in need of help to protect and manage their fragmented copyright The MCSC was the first collective management organisation CMO in mainland China and is the only CMO in the field of musical works While there is a large music industry and copyright business in China the MCSC only had 11 356 members at the end of 2021 The third amendment of the Chinese Copyright Law was initiated in 2011 and came into effect in June 2021 after a long debate for almost ten years The discussion of the third amendment has highlighted the controversial topic of collective management of copyright This book explores the adequacy of the MCSC as an intermediary representing rights for music creators The main argument developed in this study is that the work of the MCSC for individual composers and lyricists is hampered by shortcomings in the regulatory regime as well as by a lack of members rights to participate in the management of their own rights and by the ineffective international cooperation between the MCSC and other musical CMOs overseas The analysis is undertaken through a case study approach comparing the collective management systems of music copyright in China the United States and Australia and addressing the question of how musical CMOs operate in these countries Specifically three perspectives are examined the regulatory systems designed to limit the misuse of those CMOs monopoly members rights in the organisations and international cooperation between these CMOs Overall the main findings of this book suggest that the MCSC in China could work more effectively to protect music creators interests In contrast although the operational frameworks of the American Society of Composers Authors and Publishers ASCAP and the Broadcasting Broadcast Music Inc BMI in the United States and the Australasian Performing Right Association APRA in Australia are not perfect models the systems in these two countries may at least provide reference points for potential improvement of the regime of the MCSC The research recommends three courses of action strengthening the regulatory design overseeing the MCSC's monopoly clarifying the relationship between the MCSC and its members while providing the members with the right to manage their own copyright and improving the international cooperation between the MCSC and CMOs in other countries
