William Curtis Modern Architecture:

Modern Architecture Since 1900 William J. R. Curtis, 1987 A penetrating analysis of the modern architectural tradition and its origins Since its first publication in 1982 Modern Architecture Since 1900 has become established as a contemporary classic Worldwide in scope it combines a clear historical outline with masterly analysis and interpretation Technical economic social and intellectual developments are brought together in a comprehensive narrative which provides a setting for the detailed examination of buildings Throughout the book the author's focus is on the individual architect and on the qualities that give outstanding buildings their lasting value For the third edition the text has been radically revised and expanded incorporating much new material and a fresh appreciation of regional identity and variety Seven chapters are entirely new including expanded coverage of recent world architecture Described by James Ackerman of Harvard University as immeasurably the finest work covering this field in existence this book presents a penetrating analysis of the modern tradition and its origins tracing the creative interaction between old and new that has generated such an astonishing richness of architectural forms across the world and throughout the century Le Corbusier William J.R. Curtis, 1994-01-01 A study of Le Corbusier and his influence on twentieth century architecture Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman, 2005 A detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck who sought to represent a utopian content in their work Le Corbusier William J R Curtis, 2015-04-20 An expanded edition on the master of Modernism Le Corbusier by award winning architectural historian William J R Curtis Originally published in 1996 to critical fanfare scholar William J R Curtis has re issued his classic text with extensive new scholarship and contemporary research that continues the high standard of the original Presented chronologically with a clear narrative Curtis has worked tirelessly not only to document Le Corbusier's key projects in detail but to contextualize them within the architect's overarching philosophy of urbanism and art and the pervading culture of Le Corbusier's time With full access to the renowned Le Corbusier archive Curtis text is lavishly illustrated with new photographs plans and original sketches and a fresh new design Praise for the first edition This is not only the best single work on Le Corbusier a model of scholarship erudite yet eminently readable it is also an invaluable analysis of the creative architectural process It should be read and re read by every student of architecture Building Design William J R Curtis is the best architectural historian writing in the English language Chicago Tribune The Contested Territory of Architectural Theory Elie G. Haddad, 2022-10-21 This book brings together a diverse group of theoreticians to explore architectural theory as a discipline assessing its condition and relevance to contemporary practice Offering critical assessment in the face of major social and environmental issues of today 17 original contributions address the relevance of architectural theory in the contemporary world from various perspectives including but not limited to politics gender representation race environmental crisis and history The chapters are grouped into two distinct sections the first section explores various historical perspectives on architectural theory mapping theory's historiographical turn and its emergence and decline from the 1960s to the present the second offers alternative visions and new directions for architectural theory incorporating feminist and human rights perspectives and addressing contemporary issues such as Artificial Intelligence and the Age of Acceleration This edited collection features contributions from renowned scholars as well as emergent voices with a Foreword by David Leatherbarrow This book will be of great interest to graduate and upper level students of architecture as well as academics and practicing architects

The Environmental Imagination Dean Hawkes, 2019-11-07 The Environmental Imagination explores the relationship between tectonics and poetics in environmental design in architecture Working thematically and chronologically from the eighteenth century to the present day this book redefines the historiography of environmental design by looking beyond conventional histories to argue that the environments within buildings are a collaboration between poetic intentions and technical means In a sequence of essays the book traces a line through works by leading architects of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that illustrate the impact of new technologies on the conception and realisation of environments in buildings In this a consideration of the qualitative dimension of environment is added to the primarily technological narratives of other accounts In this second edition the book has been substantially rewritten and restructured to include further research conducted in the decade since the first edition A number of important buildings have been revisited in order to extend the descriptions of their environments and studies have been made of a number of newly studied significant buildings A completely new essay offers an environmental interpretation of Luis Barragán's magical own house in Mexico City and the earlier studies of buildings by Peter Zumthor have been gathered into a single extended essay that includes a body of new research On the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Reyner Banham's The Architecture of the Well tempered Environment the book concludes with a critical tribute to that seminal text The Environmental Imagination will appeal to academics and practitioners with interests in the history theory and technology of architecture

Architectural Regionalism Vincent B. Canizaro, 2012-03-20 In this rapidly globalizing world any investigation of architecture inevitably leads to considerations of regionalism But despite its omnipresence in contemporary practice and theory architectural regionalism remains a fluid concept its historical development and current influence largely undocumented This comprehensive reader brings together over 40 key essays illustrating the full range of ideas embodied by the term Authored by important critics historians and architects such as Kenneth Frampton Lewis Mumford Sigfried Giedion and Alan Colquhoun Architectural Regionalism represents the history of regionalist thinking in architecture from the early twentieth century to today

Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman, Elyssa Yoneda, 2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design They are the people historical and contemporary that students and practitioners should know Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty first centuries The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide The seventeenth and eighteenth century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole The nineteenth century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler The early twentieth century section presents modernism's design heroes including Marcel Breuer Eileen Gray and Gilbert Rohde The post World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history The book also contains less well known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel the British art deco furniture designer Paul Veyseyre the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai the Italian Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters Global in its coverage the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs

Modern Architecture, Mythical Landscapes & Ancient Ruins William J. R. Curtis, 1997 Summerson and Hitchcock Frank E. Salmon, 2006 Publisher description The Elementary School Teacher, 1909 The Architectural Review, 1987 An Intertwined History Macarena de la Vega de León, 2018 Abstract This dissertation explores the writing of history through the close reading of William J R Curtis's Modern Architecture Since 1900 1982 Curtis's book lies in a transitional period in the history of modern architecture between the establishment of research degrees in North American schools in the 1970s and the consolidation of the discipline as the subject matter of historiographical research in the 1990s These developments culminated in 1999 with a major methodological reassessment of the history of modern architecture its education and its scholarly study in journals such as JSAH and JAE The study of postcolonial theories in architecture also at the turn of the century challenged the previously accepted canon of architectural history by urging the development of a global history of architecture which remains today undefined Curtis worked on the first edition as a young researcher in North America in the late 1970s and on the definitive edition of the book in the early 1990s Modern Architecture Since 1900 is exemplary of and contemporary to these developments Monumentality and the City, 1984 Architect, 1911 The British Architect, 1913 The Architect and Contract Reporter, 1913 Boston, Forty Years of Modern Architecture Institute of Contemporary Art (Boston, Mass.), 1980 The Builder, 1905 Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects, 1926
