The Diary of a Nobody George Grossmith, Weedon Grossmith, 1918

The Long and Winding Road Lionel B. Harris, 2013-10-25 According to biblical doctrine God first created people in the universe with a hierarchy of holy angels with the highest order being identified as cherubim One of them who was anointed and perhaps the most elitist cherub amongst them knew he was created beautiful and perfect in his ways Alternately with pride and arrogance at the forefront that same being became the supreme architect and advocate for sin evil and untold suffering Henceforth the diabolical Satan was loosed upon the world Tragically from time to time beauty is in the fabled beast Handsome man and beautiful women may be pleasing to the eyes and their good looks may even grant them unearned favor but their inner nature is a virtual mystery They might be evil incarnated Meanwhile the not so attractive individuals are oftentimes ignored and generally devalued all dependent upon the beholder But possibly the inner core of that select person could render him or her almost angelic like Life's long and winding road is lined with so called beautiful and so called unattractive people However through faith and God's grace and not the naked eye the lonely traveler may be able to distinguish which is which And that'll make life's journey worthwhile All too often a young man fathers a child and assumes that that in itself validates his manhood Initially as a new dad he might even feel that all is right with the new world and his future looms bright In many cases it's a heartfelt euphoria that defies description However when the novelty wears off and reality returns a rather lengthy journey commences To the mother's credit and merit she usually accompanies her offspring on life's long and winding road but far too frequently the once proud father falters or completely vanishes along the way Arguably so it's serious and impactful tragedy for the mother the absentee father the child and sometimes the
