

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Most of students actually pay through grants, scholarships, and other "free" funds by the time of school. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

KNOW YOUR DEBTORS

There are a lot of ways to get money for college, but not all are the same. Some are based on your family's income, some on your academic achievement, and some on your need. If you know your debtors, you can make a plan to get the most money possible. This means knowing what your family's income is, what your academic achievement is, and what your need is.

FIND A FINANCIAL SAFETY NET

Look for ways to get money for college that you can rely on. This means finding a way to get money that you can rely on, even if you don't have a lot of money. This means finding a way to get money that you can rely on, even if you don't have a lot of money.
