Spirit Progress Steven Carroll:

Spirit of Progress Steven Carroll, 2011 SPIRIT OF PROGRESS is the stunning new novel from Miles Franklin Award winner Steven Carroll based on a Sidney Nolan painting of Carroll's aunt and is a compelling prequel to his Glenroy trilogy

Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney, 2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels. It puts the often trenchantly anti-suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time. Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs, suburban interiors, homes, streets, forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland. Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia. It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time. Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong.

Fate and Life Michael Allen Fox, 2024-04-15 Some believe that fate rules our lives while others dismiss the idea outright. Fate remains central to many cultural outlooks and in our age of conflict, climate change and pandemic it features conspicuously in debates about the future. A careful examination of this important idea, its background, many meanings and significance for everyday life is not only informative and intriguing but also timely. In Fate and Life Michael Fox confronts the idea of fate head on and demonstrates that how we interpret and apply this concept can make it work for rather than against us. Many discussions characterize fate negatively or as part of the occult, representing it as a supernatural force that stifles our freedom. Fateful ideas have also helped rationalize and promote the persecution of certain groups. But viewed more positively, fate can be understood as the given conditions of existence and the imponderable way certain unanticipated events momentarily alter the path we follow over time. Thinking about fate teaches us about who we are, how we see the world and our evaluation of the possibilities of life. Fate and Life provides a multicultural and global account of how we talk about the idea of fate, how we use and misuse it and how it contrasts with notions like destiny and karma. Fox's original perspective is a breakthrough in philosophy and the history of ideas shows that fate is supported by experience; it is compatible with our sense of agency and purpose and it helps us make sense of our lives.

After The Celebration Ken Gelder, Paul Salzman, 2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia's bicentenary to the end of the Howard government. In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts: cultural, social, political, historical, national and transnational. From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel, from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction, from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become      Exploring Suburbia Nathanael O'Reilly,2012 Exploring Suburbia is the first book length study of suburbia in Australian literature it addresses a long neglected and underexamined area within Australian literature and analyzes novels by some of Australia s most important writers from a new perspective in addition to examining novels previously neglected by critics This book provides new insights and perspectives on fourteen Australian novels several of which are canonical works that have been analyzed extensively by other scholars This study will lead to a reassessment of the novels and authors under discussion and prompt further research into suburbia in Australian literature It demonstrates that that the authors who have explored suburbia since 1961 have already moved Australian literature in a new direction away from the traditional focus on the bush and the city demonstrating that the literal and theoretical space between the city and the bush contains the most interesting and important engagements with contemporary Australian culture Exploring Suburbia is an important addition for collections in literature It will also be an excellent textbook for professors teaching courses on space and culture in literature It will also of course be an essential read for courses in Australian and international literature      Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing Devaleena Das,Sanjukta

Dasgupta,2017-06-29 This volume explores the subterfuges strategies and choices that Australian women writers have navigated in order to challenge patriarchal stereotypes and assert themselves as writers of substance Contextualized within the pioneering efforts of white Aboriginal and immigrant Australian women in initiating an alternative literary tradition the text captures a wide range of multiracial Australian women authors insightful reflections on crucial issues such as war and silent mourning emergence of a Australian national heroine racial purity and Aboriginal motherhood communism and activism feminist rivalry sexual transgressions autobiography and art of letter writing city space and female subjectivity lesbianism gender implications of spatial categories placement and displacement dwelling and travel location and dislocation and female body politics Claiming Space for Australian Women s Writing tracks Australian women authors varied journeys across cultural political and racial borders in the canter of contemporary political discourse      Spirit of Progress Steven Carroll,2015-09-01 SPIRIT OF PROGRESS is the stunning new novel from Miles Franklin Award winner Steven Carroll based on a Sidney Nolan painting of Carroll s aunt and is a compelling prequel to his Glenroy trilogy      Contemporary Australian Literature Nicholas Birns,2015-12-01 Australia has been seen as a land of both punishment and refuge Australian literature has explored these controlling alternatives and vividly rendered the landscape on which they transpire Twentieth century writers left Australia to see the world now Australia s distance no longer provides sanctuary But today the global perspective has arrived with a vengeance In Contemporary Australian Literature A World Not Yet Dead Nicholas Birns tells the story of how novelists poets and critics from Patrick White to Hannah Kent from Alexis Wright to Christos Tsiolkas responded to this condition With rancour concern and idealism modern Australian literature conveys a tragic sense of the past yet an abiding vision of the way forward Birns paints a vivid picture of a rich Australian literary voice one not lost to the churning of global markets but in fact given new life by it Contrary to the despairing of the critics Australian literary identity continues to flourish And as Birns finds it is not one thing but many In this remarkable bold and fearless book Nicholas Birns contests how literary cultures are read how they are constituted and what they stand for In examining the nature of the barriers between public and private utterance and looking outside the absurdity of the rules of genre Birns has produced a redemptive analysis that leaves hope for revivifying a world not yet dead John Kinsella     The Ecologist ,2002     Spiritual Parenting Steven M.
