The St. Bernard Fire Department in Hurricane Katrina , During Hurricane Katrina and the ensuing aftermath of floods caused by failed levees St Bernard Parish suffered some of the worst damage The rescue of over 6 000 stranded injured and defenseless residents proved dangerous traumatic and lonely for the parish fire department Firemen would quickly learn their roles were diverse and demanding and they would find little help from outside sources Acting as EMTs rescue and recovery mechanics social workers and providers for parish residents they had to ignore their own losses and heartaches for days in order to save as many lives as they could alone Empowering State and Local Officials Through Enhanced FEMA Regional Offices United States. Congress. House. Committee on Homeland Security. Subcommittee on Management, Investigations, and Oversight,2009 The ^AOther Side of Suffering Katie E. Cherry,2020-03-25 As a developmental psychologist conducting research on the impact of the 2005 Atlantic Hurricanes Katrina and Rita Katie Cherry logged thousands of miles in her car and hundreds of hours interviewing survivors and along the the way she learned a few things about variables that matter after a disaster In this work she presents objective research based findings together with case illustrations and direct quotations from Katrina survivors Six evidence based principles of healing are presented The overarching premise of this work is that the coastal residents who survived Katrina have a message of hope and healing after disaster Their lives demonstrate that survivors of any disaster can regain a sense of joy in daily living after a catastrophic disaster or other life altering tragedy The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson,2013-09-05 The literary tradition of New Orleans spans centuries and touches every genre its living heritage winds through storied neighborhoods and is celebrated at numerous festivals across the city For booklovers a visit to the Big Easy isn t complete without whiling away the hours in an antiquarian bookstore in the French Quarter or stepping out on a literary walking tour Perhaps only among the oak lined avenues Creole town houses and famed hotels of New Orleans can the lust of A Streetcar Named Desire the zaniness of A Confederacy of Dunces the chill of Interview with the Vampire and the heartbreak of Walker Percy s Moviegoer begin to resonate Susan Larson s revised and updated edition of The Booklover s Guide to New Orleans not only explores the legacy of Tennessee Williams and William Faulkner but also visits the haunts of celebrated writers of today including Anne Rice and James Lee Burke This definitive guide provides a key to the books authors festivals stores and famed addresses that make the Crescent City a literary destination Fish and Wildlife News U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service,2004 Flood of Images Bernie Cook,2015-04 Anyone who was not in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina and the subsequent flooding of the city experienced the disaster as a media event a flood of images pouring across television and computer screens The twenty four hour news cycle created a surplus of representation that overwhelmed viewers and complicated understandings of the storm the flood and the aftermath As time passed documentary and fictional filmmakers took up the challenge of explaining what had happened in New Orleans reaching beyond news reports to portray the lived experiences of survivors of Katrina But while these narratives presented alternative understandings and more opportunities for empathy than TV news Katrina remained a mediated experience In Flood of Images Bernie Cook offers the most in depth wide ranging and carefully argued analysis of the mediation and meanings of Katrina He engages in innovative close and comparative visual readings of news coverage on CNN Fox News and NBC documentaries including Spike Lee s When the Levees Broke and If God Is Willing and Da Creek Don t Rise Tia Lessin and Carl Deal s Trouble the Water and Dawn Logsdon and Lolis Elie s Faubourg Tremé and the HBO drama Tremé Cook examines the production practices that shaped Katrina as media event exploring how those choices structured the possible memories and meanings of Katrina and how the media s memory making has been contested In Flood of Images Cook intervenes in the ongoing process of remembering and understanding Katrina
