Beats matter of building on trust

Door automation isn't something we do, it is what we live with. Since 1955 we have led the professional door automation market and grown into one of the world's largest manufacturers of automatic door systems.

International brands trust Stanley to open doors for their customers, around the globe, every day. Our focus is about opening more doors for you. That's why we have expanded our trust line up of automatic door systems. New businesses of any type, size and location can experience all the simple benefits of Stanley automatic door systems.

Barrier free access with Stanley

Stanley Automatic Door Systems provide barrier free access for pedestrian traffic of all types. The design ensures a safe and reliable passage without compromising pedestrian traffic flow and the surrounding environment.

Stanley Automatic Door Systems combine state-of-the-art 120 Newton compression technology with advanced engineering to provide the safest, most dependable and highest performance door systems in the industry today. The range of Automatic Sliding Doors meet the strict guidelines of EN12453 and EN12454.

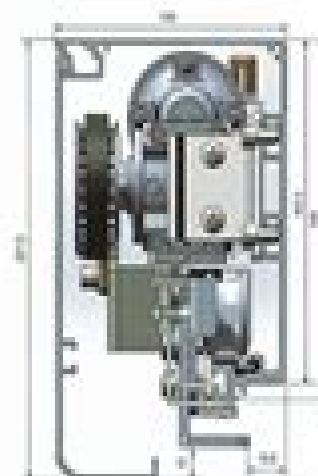

Safe and intelligent control

CE marked intelligent microprocessor control regulates the automatic door distance and weight which automatically allows door motion for safe smooth operation. Safety is paramount so the complete drive system is continuously monitored. In the event of a fault the system takes appropriate action to maintain safety.

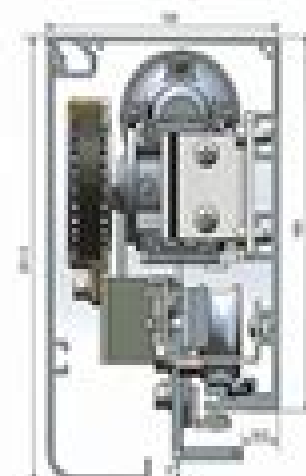

Durable and robust drive system

Stainless quality drive unit with high efficiency dynamic speed control for safe and smooth door motion. Designed to withstand years of continuous operation. Reinforced synchronous belt drive with adjustable end pulley. Long lasting cast aluminium load bearing track wheels provide smooth trouble free operation.
