The Solo Beatles Film & TV Chronicle 1971-1980 Jörg Pieper, 2009-05-17 This book is meant as a companion volume to The Beatles Film TV Chronicle 1961-1970 and covers the first ten years of the solo careers of the individual Beatles from 1971 to 1980. It is the indispensable reference book for every serious Beatles video collector with several years worth of research and investigation into the massive amount of film material held in archives around the world. The book includes details on over 100 hours worth of solo material with many items covered for the very first time and is fully illustrated with over one hundred and eighty thumbnail images b/w taken from a variety of film sources. As a bonus the book also includes a chapter of updates regarding recently discovered and new information about films of The Beatles as a group during the years from 1961 to 1970. I write about love, I write about friendship, remarked Thom Gunn. I find that they are absolutely intertwined. These core values permeate his correspondence with friends, family, lovers and fellow poets and they shed new light on one of the most singular and compelling poets in English during the past half century. Hugh Haughton The Times Literary Supplement The Letters of Thom Gunn edited by August Kleinzahler, Michael Nott and Clive Wilmer reveals the evolution of Gunn's work and illuminates the fascinating life that informed his poems: his struggle to come to terms with his mother's suicide, settling in San Francisco and his complex relationship with England; his changing relationship with his life partner Mike Kitay; the LSD trips that led to his celebrated collection Moly 1971 and the deaths of friends from AIDS that inspired the powerful unsparing elegies of The Man with Night Sweats 1992. Proceedings of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 1977. The Federal Court Reports Australia.
