Writing Taiwan Writing Taiwan:

Written Taiwanese Henning Klöter,2005 Written Taiwanese provides the first comprehensive account of the different ways in which Taiwanese i.e. the Southern Min language of Taiwan has been represented in written sources. The scope of the study ranges from early popular writings in closely related dialects to present day forms of written Taiwanese. The study treats written Taiwanese both as a linguistic and as a socio political phenomenon. The linguistic description focuses on the interrelation between written units and Taiwanese speech and covers various linguistic subfields such as Taiwanese lexicography phonology and morphosyntax. The socio political analysis explores the historical backgrounds which have led to different conventions in writing Taiwanese.

Re-writing Culture in Taiwan Fang-Long Shih, Stuart Thompson, Paul Tremlett, 2008-11-05 This interdisciplinary volume of essays opens new points of departure for thinking about how Taiwan has been studied and represented in the past for reflecting on the current state of Taiwan Studies and for thinking about how Taiwan might be re configured in the future. As the study of Taiwan shifts from being a provincial back water of sinology to an area in its own albeit not sovereign right a combination of established and up and coming scholars working in the field of East Asian studies offer a re reading and re writing of culture in Taiwan. They show that sustained critical analysis of contemporary Taiwan using issues such as trauma memory history tradition modernity post modernity provides a useful point of departure for thinking through similar problematics and issues elsewhere in the world. Re writing Culture in Taiwan is a multidisciplinary book with its own distinctive collective voice which will appeal to anyone interested in Taiwan. With chapters on nationalism anthropology cultural studies media studies religion and museum studies the breadth of ground covered is truly comprehensive.
