ECSCW 2007 Liam J. Bannon, Ina Wagner, Carl Gutwin, Richard H.R. Harper, Kjeld Schmidt, 2007-09-20 The emergence and widespread use of personal computers and network technologies have seen the development of interest in the use of computers to support cooperative work. This volume presents the proceedings of the tenth European conference on Computer Supported Cooperative Work CSCW. This is a multidisciplinary area that embraces the development of new technologies grounded in actual cooperative practices. These proceedings contain a collection of papers addressing novel interaction technologies for CSCW systems, new models and architectures for groupware systems, studies of communication and coordination among mobile actors, studies of cooperative work in complex settings, studies of groupware systems in actual use in real world settings and theories and techniques to support the development of cooperative applications. The papers present emerging technologies alongside new methods and approaches to the development of this important class of applications.

Information Design Workbook Kim Baer, Jill Vacarra, 2008-05-01 This workbook is a methodical yet comprehensive approach to conveying the fundamentals of avant garde innovative information design by examining history, theory, criticism, technology and media process method and practice. Opening with a very brief history followed by an instructive breakdown of the discipline, readers get an intimate understanding of the complexities of crafting information design to effectively improve communication both functionally and aesthetically. The back half of the book contains a wide range of case studies from design firms around the world so designers can see the techniques previously outlined in the first half of the book. The author also critiques and explains why the design is successful in terms of formal quality, Aesthetics and function. How does it improve communication?
