Defining Sport Shawn E. Klein, 2016-12-14 Defining Sport Conceptions and Borderlines is not about the variations of usage of the term sport. It is about the concept the range of activities in the world that we unite into one idea sport. It is through the project of defining sport that we can come to understand these activities better how they are similar or different and how they relate to other human endeavors. This definitional inquiry and the deeper appreciation and apprehension of sport that follows is the core of this volume. Part I examines several of the standard and influential approaches to defining sport. Part II uses these approaches to examine various challenging borderline cases. These chapters examine the interplay of the borderline cases with the definition and provide a more thorough and clearer understanding of both the definition and the given cases. This work is not meant to be the definitive or exhaustive account of sport. It is meant to inspire further thought and debate on just what sport is how it relates to other activities and human endeavors and what we can learn about ourselves through the study of sport. This book will be of interest to scholars in philosophy of sport history, communications, sociology, psychology, sports management, cultural studies, and physical education.

Essays: De Rerum Natura Gregory Blotnick, 2025-08-20 A raw unflinching collection of essays on pain, discipline, redemption, and the inner war every man must fight in rebuilding himself. In Essays De Rerum Natura, Gregory Blotnick takes readers on a searing journey through the depths of the human condition exploring suffering, forgiveness, and the constant tension between failure and renewal. With hard-earned wisdom and philosophical depth, he champions relentless personal accountability not as a form of penance but as the only true path to freedom. Blotnick writes not as a guide but as a fellow traveler through the dark night of the soul, sharing lessons forged in the fires of personal collapse. In this collection of thirty essays, he weaves these reflections with the timeless insights of thinkers like Pascal, Schopenhauer, Seneca, Nietzsche, and Plutarch, creating a powerful blend of lived experience and enduring wisdom. Part memoir, part philosophical guide, and part spiritual reckoning, Essays De Rerum Natura is a blueprint for rebuilding after defeat. Above all, it is a clarion call for readers to keep showing up to life, holding firm in their own self-belief as they transform suffering into strength. 100% of book proceeds are donated to the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP).

Media Mysteries: The Chelan Montgomery Stories Gail Hulnick, 2025-11-17 Two gripping thrillers. One relentless investigator. When suicide becomes murder. A body falls from a high-rise balcony in Vancouver's West End. Witnesses call it suicide. But Chelan Montgomery, a sharp young journalist who shared a final drink with the victim just hours before, knows there's more to the story. Keith Papineau was a powerful TV broadcaster respected and envied and very possibly hunted. When his teenage son begs Chelan to uncover the truth, her investigation pierces the glittering fadeds of west coast wealth cutting through a labyrinth of lies that winds from oceanside mansions to Whistler's Olympic slopes. As Chelan peels back the layers of Keith's life and death, she encounters enemies hiding in plain sight, jealous coworkers, ruthless executives, and fractured family members with something to lose. But the deeper she digs, the more dangerous the truth becomes. Soon she's the one being followed. In the end, Chelan must risk everything to bring a killer to justice without destroying the boy who asked for her help. Character assassination on social media. Assault with a deadly weapon. On California's central coast, a rising football star is under siege. Quarterback Jesse Tuvornay is living the dream until someone decides to destroy it. His every move is stalked and posted. His private moments twisted into clickbait. When a viral campaign begins shredding his reputation and implicates his supermodel girlfriend, Jesse's world starts to unravel. Chelan Montgomery has seen this kind of thing before. She's dealt with power lies and the weaponization of media. But this time, the enemy isn't on the airwaves; it's hiding in the shadows of the internet, manipulating images and feeding a frenzy that could end careers or worse. Then a new photo surfaces. One that could push Jesse over the edge. With a reputation on the line and lives hanging in the balance, Chelan races to expose the troll before the quarterback self-destructs. But in a world where truth is slippery and digital poison spreads fast, nothing is what it seems and no one is safe. Fast-paced, psychologically rich and fiercely contemporary, Media Mysteries delivers two heart-pounding novels starring a journalist who doesn't stop until she finds the truth. Fans of Ross Macdonald, Tana French, or Megan Abbott will find a new favorite in Gail Hulnick.

Hoping for the Best Sarah Berryman, 2016-11-22

Fed up of how to books and people with perfect children who do wonderful things all of the time. This is how it really is in our house. It's hectic, it's noisy, and it's messy most of the time. But by and large, it's a happy house. Parenting book Hoping for the Best. Three months in the life of a twin plus one mummy offers a unique day-to-day glimpse into the challenges and craziness thrown at a mum to three young boys. Sarah has real children. They did not sleep through from day one. They did not master baby-led weaning. They have all had the norovirus, chicken pox, and two of the three have had nits. They have bitten and been bitten. One has a hearing aid, one wears splints at night to stop him walking on tip toes, and one has a speech delay. They play a little, bicker a lot, and are friends and enemies in equal measure. Hoping for the Best gives a rare insight into daily life with identical twins and the dynamics between them, their younger feistier sibling, and the rest of the family. The book will appeal to other parents and those who enjoy humorous writing and family life biographies. Started as a diary, the book was born when other school mums suggested that this would be just the kind of book that they would love to read, not a parenting manual, not a book about becoming a new mum, but the true reality of life as a mum with identical twins plus one. With Sarah's mantra Hoping for the best, prepared for the worst, and unsurprised by anything in between, a quote from the American author Maya Angelou woven through the diary, this account portrays an indelible impression of resilience and humour through the colourful challenges of each and every day.
