strained novel Wuthering Heights and a few poems Emily Bront like her sister Charlotte was educated at Cowan School and at Brussels For a time she became a governess but it seemed impossible for her to live away from the fascination of the Yorkshire moors and she went home to keep house at the Haworth Parsonage while her sisters taught Two months after the publication of Jane Eyre by Charlotte that is in December 1847 Wuthering Heights by Emily and Agnes Grey by Anne the third sister in this remarkable trio were issued in one volume The critics who did not discover these books were by women suggested persistently that Wuthering Heights must be an immature work by Currer Bell Charlotte A year after the publication of her novel Emily died unaware of her success in achieving a lasting if restricted fame She was extraordinarily reserved sensitive and wayward and lived in an imagined world of her own morbidly influenced no doubt by the vagaries of her worthless brother Branwell That she had true genius allied with fine strength of intellect and character is the unanimous verdict of competent criticism while it grieves over unfulfilled possibilities For more eBooks visit www.kartindo.com
