Invested Paul Crosthwaite, Peter Knight, Nicky Marsh, Helen Paul, James Taylor, 2023-01-05 As more people than ever invest in the stock market many feel a profound need for professional advice about it Yet a financial adviser generally has no idea what s going to happen The 300 year history of everyday financial advice in the capitalist world encompassing eighteenth century domestic advice manuals Gilded Age swindles market crashes the boom in self help rhetoric and TV shoutfests is one of dart throwing brazen hucksterism and serial failure It spans the Atlantic and is ultimately a cultural history of rhetoric and imagination not rationality Remarkably the authors of this book conclude advice aims less to guide investors toward financial returns than to create a kind of citizen one who assumes others risks monetizes the future and becomes in themselves a kind of investment Being Digital Citizens Engin Isin, Professor of International Politics, Queen Mary University of London (QMUL) and University of London Institute in Paris (ULIP), Evelyn Ruppert, 2015-04-09 Developing a critical perspective on the challenges and possibilities presented by cyberspace this book explores where and how political subjects perform new rights and duties that govern themselves and others online The Great Transformation Judith Bessant, 2018-04-17 While artificial intelligence AI robots bio technologies and digital media are transforming work culture and social life there is little understanding of or agreement about the scope and significance of this change This new interpretation of the great transformation uses history and evolutionary theory to highlight the momentous shift in human consciousness taking place Only by learning from recent crises and rejecting technological determinism will governments and communities redesign social arrangements that ensure we all benefit from the new and emerging technologies The book documents the transformations under way in financial markets entertainment and medicine affecting all aspects of work and social life It draws on historical sociology and co evolutionary theory arguing that the radical evolution of human consciousness and social life now under way is comparable with if not greater than the agrarian revolution 10000 BCE the explosion of science philosophy and religion in the Axial Age 600 BCE and the recent Industrial Revolution Turning to recent major socio economic crisis and asking what can be learnt from them the answer is we cannot afford this time around to repeat the failures of elites and theoretical systems such as economics to attend appropriately to radical change We need to think beyond the constraints of determinist and reductionist explanations and embrace the idea of deep freedom This book will appeal to educators social scientists policy makers business leaders and students It concludes with social design principles that can inform deliberative processes and new social arrangements that ensure everyone benefits from the affordances of the new and emerging technologies Michigan Law Review ,1906 The Politics of Combating Human Trafficking in the United States Nancy E. Marion, Kimberly J. Hufgard, 2025-03-04 This book examines political responses to the problem of human trafficking including proposals actions legislative and executive and statements made by politicians government agencies and civil society organizations to solve or mitigate the crime of human trafficking. The objective is not just to recognize the nature and impact of human trafficking but to understand the approaches used or recommended to solve the problem and the motivations behind such strategies. The issue of human trafficking has become particularly important given the charged environment regarding border politics. The book details the various policy options that have been proposed, supported, opposed, or passed by US politicians over the past five to ten years. This includes decisions made by presidents, legislators, national and state agencies, and interest groups. Court decisions on human trafficking policies and media coverage of events are also explored. This political analysis is designed to help readers understand what motivated the proposals designed to address human trafficking and the impact those policies had or are having. This book is ideal as a primary text for college courses in human trafficking and modern slavery or a supplemental text for a range of scholarly courses of study including human rights, criminal justice, law, and political science. It is recommended for anyone with an interest in human trafficking and what might be done to stop it.
