The Good Family Fitzgerald Joseph Di Prisco,2020-04-14

The Fitzgeralds are buttressed by wealth and privilege but they are also buffeted by crisis after crisis many of their own creation Even so they live large in love and in strife wielding power combating adversaries and each other The Good Family Fitzgerald is a saga of money and ambition crime and the Catholic Church a sprawling passionate story shaped against a background of social discord Padraic Fitzgerald is the up from nothing aging patriarch whose considerable business interests appear anything but legitimate but he has bigger problems than law enforcement A widower Paddy becomes enmeshed with a young woman who will force him to re examine his cardinal assumptions Meanwhile he has cultivated thorny relationships with his four children all of whom struggle over the terms of connection with their father Anthony oldest son principled criminal defense attorney designated prince of the family and his cherished Francesca are devastated by tragedy In the aftermath Frankie comes to play a vital role in Fitzgerald lore Philip is a charismatic Catholic priest spectacularly torn between his lofty ideals and aspirations and his all too human flaws and longings Matty has wandered aimlessly but once he finds his purpose he precipitates turmoil in all quarters Colleen the youngest is a seeker who styles herself the outsider and the conscience of the clan Her hands are full as no Fitzgerald is left untested or unscathed and by the end the whole family as well as those venturing into their realm will be stunned into illumination
