An Amazing Fact

Legend has it that when the Greeks were unable to capture the city of Troy even after imposing a 10-year siege, they finally resorted to a clever stratagem. The Greek army pretended to sail away and left on the shore a huge, hollow wooden horse as an apparent victory gift. However, the gift was actually filled with several armed warriors! Sinon, a Greek spy inside Troy, persuaded the Trojans to bring the horse within the city walls, saying that to do so would mysteriously make Troy invincible. That night Sinon released the troops hiding in the gigantic horse. After killing the Trojan guards, they opened the gates to the waiting Greek soldiers, and Troy was captured and burned.

Differences of Interpretation

A gift from an enemy can be very deadly. The underworld has successfully dispatched many human targets by beautifully wrapping a bomb as a gift with an ornate bow and paper that explodes when opened. Today the devil is using a counterfeit gift of the Spirit - a pagan form of the gift of tongues- to gain access to the church of God and destroy it from within.

Shortly after becoming a Christian, I was hitchhiking from Palm Springs to Los Angeles to visit my mother. About halfway to my destination, I caught a ride with a kind, middle-aged Pentecostal lady who was very pleased to hear of my recent conversion. As we drove along, she asked, "Have you received the Holy Ghost yet?"

I was a little surprised by her question, because no one had ever asked me that before. "Well, I think I have," I said slowly. "I've certainly felt God's Spirit in my life. The Lord is helping me make so many changes-you know, like giving up drugs, stealing, lying, cursing, and much more."

"No, that's not what I mean," she said, looking a little frustrated. "Have you received the baptism of the Holy Ghost? Do you speak in tongues?" It struck me as odd that she seemed far more interested in whether or not I had experienced an ecstatic utterance than she was in the fact that I was having victory over the sins that had long held me captive!

Even still, this kind lady was convinced that I was missing out on a primary element of the Christian experience. And not wanting to be deprived of something so important, I began a very deep search into the controversial subject of tongues. The first few churches I attended were all charismatic, which means they believed in speaking in ecstatic tongues-an experience often described as "glossolalia." Most of my new friends at our Bible study group "spoke in tongues," so the information I am about to share is the result of firsthand

Understanding the Gift of Tongues: Personal Handbook on the Gift of Tongues Adebodun Joshua,2019-11-09 In John 6 63 the response of our Lord Jesus Christ to His disciples when they were murmuring about His teachings was the words that I speak unto you they are spirit and they are life This response helps us to understand that the spoken and the written word of God is full of life But it is through the spirit the life of His word is manifested As a Bible Student and teacher I specifically wanted to know more of the three common texts on the gift of tongues namely Mark 16 Acts 2 and 1Corinthians 14 Since those are the most quoted scriptures on the gift of tongues While studying these texts I realized that the tongues promised in Mark 16 and the one spoken in Acts 2 has a different adjective qualifying the word tongue Therefore to understand this gift of tongues we have to agree with the Biblical writers why they include these adjectives New and Other to the word tongue and why these adjectives never appear again in all the places the gift of tongues is mentioned in the Bible Hundreds of articles have been written concerning this topic but without the notice of these two adjectives we will still not have a complete understanding about the gift of tongues In this book I explore the reality of the gift of tongues in its fullness in the light of these two adjectives that precede the word Tongues as recorded in the Bible I addressed the true Biblical meaning of the tongues described by Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 14 and deal with issues concerning the gift of tongue and finally responded to some thought provoking questions that the reader might want some lights on Questions I have asked myself on this gift of tongues the one I heard people asked and those that came to me in the process of writing this book I pray this book will restore light on this contentious topic for the power of unity is with understanding The Importance of Outsiders to Pauline Communities Emma Louise Parker,2024-06-13 This book argues that despite Paul's often dramatic and critical descriptions of non-Christians his letters reveal a deep concern for the presence of outsiders and for their opinion of Christians Parker suggests that outsiders are enormously important to Paul they determine whether Christian communities dwindle or thrive while also playing a key role in helping such communities to understand and shape their purpose as missional disciples develop their thinking and practice around normal daily events and relationships and even shape how they understand God Parker offers a careful exegesis of the main texts within the Pauline corpus revealing a sensitivity to the outsider including 1 Thessalonians Romans 1 Corinthians and the Pastoral Epistles By using Social Identity Theory she explores key concepts of group boundaries identity and inter group relations highlighting a theme which is significant in Paul's own thought the importance of similarity between groups Whilst not denying the counter cultural identity of the new Christian communities Parker concludes that Paul reveals the areas of overlap between insiders and outsiders since these areas not only create opportunities for positive opinions and relationships but also point to a greater understanding of God
